Of Khalid The 20th Century Key To Arabamerican Literature:

Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf The Book of Khalid Ameen Rihani, 2016-03-21 The semi autobiographical work chronicles the adventures of two young men Khalid and Shakib who leave Lebanon for the United States to find work as peddlers in Lower Manhattan After mixed success at immersing themselves in American culture the two return to the Middle East at a time of turmoil following the Young Turk Revolution in the Ottoman Empire Khalid attempts to integrate his Western experiences with Eastern spiritual values becoming an absurd yet all too serious combination of political revolutionary and prophet The Book of Khalid offers readers a heady mix of picaresque philosophical dialogue and immigrant story In this critical edition Fine includes the text of the original 1911 edition a substantial glossary and supplemental essays by leading Rihani scholars Demonstrating the reach and significance of the work these essays address a variety of themes including Rihani's creative influences philosophical elements and the historical context of the novel Attracting a new generation of readers to Rihani's innovative work this edition reveals his continued resonance with contemporary Arab American literature

American Arabesque Jacob Rama Berman, 2012-06-11 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series American Arabesque examines representations of Arabs Islam and the Near East in nineteenth century American culture arguing that these representations play a significant role in the development of American national identity over the century revealing largely unexplored exchanges between these two cultural traditions that will alter how we understand them today Moving from the period of America's engagement in the Barbary Wars through the Holy Land travel mania in the years of Jacksonian expansion and into the writings of romantics such as Edgar Allen Poe the book argues that not only were Arabs and Muslims prominently featured in nineteenth century literature but that the differences writers established between figures such as Moors Bedouins Turks and Orientals provide proof of the transnational scope of domestic racial politics Drawing on both English and Arabic language sources Berman contends that the fluidity and instability of the term Arab as it appears in captivity narratives travel narratives imaginative literature and ethnic literature simultaneously instantiate and undermine definitions of the American nation and American citizenship

Global Arab Fiction Nadia Atia, Lindsey Moore, 2024-12-30 Global Arab Fiction explores twenty first century fiction set in north and east Africa the Gulf the Arab east and diaspora showing diversity and connections across Arab world contexts Nadia Atia and Lindsey Moore draw on a substantial literary corpus highlighting contemporary trends in what is available to Anglophone audiences and considering how Arab fiction circulates as a global commodity Global Arab Fiction begins by positioning the Arab novel as a global phenomenon It also explores the influence of literary prizes notably the International Prize for Arabic Fiction on the enhanced international visibility of Arab fiction this century The authors tackle the thorny issue of violence in representing Arab world contexts and spotlight queer Arab desire identity and community They address the rise of speculative Arab literary modes and show how both mobility and immobility challenge a global paradigm Global Arab Fiction illuminates a vibrant body of literature rooted in but not circumscribed by a region redefined by twenty first century global geopolitics This book offers new arguments about twenty first century Arab literary tropes modes consecration routes identities and contexts It is unmissable for readers interested in contemporary postcolonial Arab Middle Eastern and world literary studies

Race Characters Swati Rana, 2020-10-06 A vexed figure inhabits U S literature and culture the visibly racialized immigrant who disavows minority identity and embraces the American dream Such figures are potent and controversial for they promise to expiate racial violence and perpetuate an exceptionalist ideal of America Swati Rana grapples with these figures building on studies of literary character and racial form Rana offers a new way to view characterization through racialization that creates a fuller social reading of race Situated in a nascent period of ethnic identification from 1900 to 1960 this book focuses on immigrant writers who do not fit neatly into a resistance based model of ethnic literature Writings by Paule Marshall Ameen Rihani Dalip Singh Saund Jos Garcia Villa and Jos Antonio Villarreal symbolize different aspects of the American dream from individualism to imperialism assimilation to upward mobility The dynamics of characterization are also those of contestation Rana argues Analyzing the interrelation of persona and personhood Race Characters presents an original method of comparison revealing how the protagonist of the American dream is socially constrained and structurally driven

Precarious Passages Tuire Valkeakari, 2022-06-28 Precarious Passages unites literature written by members of the far flung Black Anglophone diaspora Rather than categorizing novels as simply African American Black Canadian Black British or postcolonial African Caribbean this book takes an integrative approach it argues that fiction creates and sustains a sense of a wider African diasporic community in the Western world Tuire Valkeakari analyzes the writing of Toni Morrison Caryl Phillips Lawrence Hill and other contemporary novelists of African descent She shows how their novels connect with each other and with defining moments in the transatlantic experience most notably the Middle Passage and enslavement The lives of their characters are marked by migration and displacement Their protagonists yearn to experience fulfilling human connection in a place they can call home Portraying strategies of survival adaptation and resistance across the limitless varieties of life experiences in the diaspora these novelists continually reimagine what it means to share a Black diasporic identity

Journal of Medieval Military History John France, Kelly DeVries, Clifford J. Rogers, 2021-06-18 The leading academic vehicle for scholarly publication in the field of medieval warfare Medieval Warfare

Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabih Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh Middle East, the

Strategic Hub Army Library (U.S.),1978 Arab Revolutions and World Transformations Anna M Agathangelou, Nevzat Soguk, 2013-09-13 Stories about institutions and regimes that have failed us are echoing worldwide This book critically engages the multiple uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa MENA following the self immolation of Tunisian street vendor Mohamed Bouazizi in December 2010 It brings together authors who critically analyse the unstoppable force unleashed in the streets of Tunisia Egypt Bahrain Syria Libya and Yemen This book analyses the roots and trajectory of the recent revolts in the context of the global transformations that have redefined the politics of movement and revolution For example some authors engage extensively with the strategies embraced by the younger generation of activists Others argue that the power of these revolutions lies in the people s creative orientations including their collaborations While much of the mobilization efforts in these different parts of the world happen through word of mouth radio cartoons placards and SMS services sites such as Facebook helped people meet each other with a click carrying their claims through stories songs poetry and art of protest across international borders quickly enabling them to rapidly bring authoritarian regimes to the brink of collapse and make a qualitatively different expression of uprisings All authors in this volume address the question of the stakes in these revolts as through them spectacular and everyday violence can be challenged and alternative social projects can emerge Neither a footnote to the West s history nor an appendix to neoliberal capitalist global projects people are actively drawing on their power to disrupt domination and oppression creatively responding to global problems and calling for democratic institutions with viable ecologies This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations
