Throughout the centuries, angels have been featured in, among others, theological works, on scripture studies, in comparative religions, works on art, architecture and music, philological studies, philosophical, sociological, anthropological, archeological and psychological works, and even a psychoanalytical study of the implications that our understanding of angels has for our understanding of sexual differences. This bibliography lists 4,355 works alphabetically by author. Each entry contains a source for the reference, often a Library of Congress call number followed by the name of a university that holds the work. More than 750 of the entries are annotated. Extensive indexes to names, subjects and centuries provide further utility.

Letters to Gabriel Karen Santorum, 2012-02-21 Foreword by Mother Teresa. This moving collection of intimate, poignant and heart warming letters was written by Karen Santorum to her unborn child, Gabriel Michael. During her pregnancy, Karen wrote letters to her son, never expecting that the letters would someday be published. Though her pregnancy began as normal, Karen ended up experiencing serious difficulties with her pregnancy at the same time that her husband, Rick Santorum, the Republican Senator for Pennsylvania, was leading the charge against partial birth abortions in the U.S. Senate. Letters to Gabriel is the story of Gabriel Michael's short but meaningful life and a tribute to the sanctity of life, the deep faith of the Santorums and strong family values. The intimate bond between mother and child is expressed by Karen with great tenderness and love. This is a deeply moving book that will touch the heart of its readers with the beauty of the gift of life and inspire them to share it with others.

The contributors are not catechists but theologians who, after St. Anselm, see theology as faith seeking understanding. The text targets those who seek to understand Christianity and its theology. The essays highlight the interconnectedness and distinct features of religion as they seek to hear and respond to God's call. The Mystery of the Ages John W. Rush, BTh MTS, 2024-07-26. Christianity is not a religion but it is a relationship with Christ. The key to victorious Christian living is presented in Colossians 1:24-29 by the Apostle Paul and confirmed in many other references in the New Testament. In an inspirational study, Pastor John Rush dissects the concepts presented in Colossians item by item, culminating in the supernatural ministry of the Holy Spirit within the heart of every believer. What is God seeking to accomplish, and how does He go about producing this desired end and purpose in the lives of His saints? Within each chapter, Rush includes a true story chosen to illustrate the gracious power of the Lord in our lives, the ministry of evangelism, and the transformation of believers through prayer, spiritual warfare, and the Master's touch. The Mystery of the Ages examines the inspiring Word of God in Colossians 1:24-29 by the Apostle Paul to demonstrate that our new birth must include that Christ and the Holy Spirit take up permanent residence within every believer.

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13. Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace, however, have a hands-on orientation, often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that how-to trend, The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism.

The Gospel Commission Michael Horton, 2011-04-01. Many churches in America today want to be powerful, relevant, and influential in personal and social transformation. But whose kingdom are we building: God's or our own? A plethora of programs for outreach, discipleship, and spiritual disciplines are available at any bookstore and on countless websites. Yet what we need most is a renewed understanding of and commitment to the Great Commission. We assume that we already know the nature of this commission and the appropriate methods of carrying it out. But Michael Horton contends that it too often becomes our mission instead of God's. At a time when churches are zealously engaged in writing up mission statements and strategic plans, he argues that we must ask ourselves anew whether we are ambassadors following the script we've been given or building our own kingdoms with our own blueprint. Pastors, church leaders, and readers of Horton's Christless Christianity and The Gospel Driven Life will value this frank and hopeful exploration of the Great Commission as a call to understanding and good practice.
