devoted to the illumination of the human condition through a systematic examination of all that is made to be seen It is our intention to demonstrate the value of an anthropological approach to the study of the visual and pictorial world The anthropological filmmaker just like the ethnographer must be content to present something about a dynamic process at a particular moment in time regardless of the fact that all of the variables are constantly in flux The purpose of this work is to make available a collection of articles by individuals who are both anthropologists and filmmakers

Manifesting Spirits Jack Hunter, 2020-12-12 Manifesting Spirits is an exploration of contemporary trance and physical mediumship at a private spiritualist home circle called the Bristol Spirit Lodge Located in a garden on the outskirts of Bristol the Lodge is a wooden shed specially constructed for the purposes of mediumship development and spirit communication Through a combination of ethnographic observations in seances including his own experiences of mediumship development and interviews with spirits and their mediums Hunter delves into a sub urban world of trance states ectoplasm spirit lights and discarnate entities Issues relating to altered states of consciousness personhood performance and the efficacy of ritual are examined in order to make sense of the processes by which spirits become manifest in social reality A large part of Manifesting Spirits is given over to a broader discussion of anthropology's evolving attitudes toward the paranormal as a component of the life worlds of many people across the globe and argues for the development of a non reductive anthropological approach to the paranormal and mediumship in particular This emerging framework referred to as ontological flooding does not attempt to explain away the existence of spirits in terms of functional cognitive or pathological theories as most mainstream theorists tend to do but rather embraces a processual perspective that emphasises complexity and multiple interconnected processes underlying spirit possession performances and experiences

Vision, Science and

Literature, 1870-1920 Martin Willis, 2015-07-22 This book explores the Victorian concept of vision across scientific and cultural forms Willis charts the characterization of vision through four organizing principles small large past and future to arrive at a Victorian conception of what vision was Willis then explores how this Victorian vision influenced twentieth century ways of seeing Extraordinary Beliefs Peter Lamont, 2013-02-07 Since the early nineteenth century mesmerists mediums and psychics have exhibited extraordinary phenomena These have been demonstrated reported and disputed by every modern generation We continue to wonder why people believe in such things while others wonder why they are dismissed so easily Extraordinary Beliefs takes a historical approach to an ongoing psychological problem why do people believe in extraordinary phenomena It considers the phenomena that have been associated with mesmerism spiritualism psychical research and parapsychology By drawing upon conjuring theory frame analysis and discourse analysis it examines how such phenomena have been made convincing in demonstration and report and then disputed endlessly It argues that we cannot understand extraordinary beliefs unless we properly consider the events in which people believe and what people believe about them And it shows how in constructing and maintaining particular beliefs about particular phenomena we have been in the business of constructing ourselves Theatre, Ritual and Transformation Sue Jennings, 2018-12-20 Sue Jennings and her three children spent two years on a fieldwork expedition to the Senoi Temiar people of Malaysia Theatre Ritual and Transformation is a fascinating account of that experience She describes how the Temiar regularly perform seances which are enacted through dreams dance music and drama and explains that they see the seance as playing a valuable preventative role in people's lives as well as being a medium of healing and cure Her account brings together the insights of drama therapy and theatre with those of social anthropology to provide an invaluable theoretical framework for understanding theatre and ritual and their links with healing Altered States Marlene Tromp, 2012-02-01 Altered States examines the rise of Spiritualism the religion of seances mediums and ghostly encounters in the Victorian period and the role it played in undermining both traditional female roles and the rhetoric of imperialism Focusing on a particular kind of seance event the full form materialization and the bodies of the young female mediums who performed it Marlene Tromp argues that in the altered state of the seance new ways of understanding identity and relationships became possible This not only demonstrably shaped the thinking of the Spiritualists but also the popular consciousness of the period In diaries letters newspaper accounts scientific reports and popular fiction Tromp uncovers evidence that the radical views presented in the faith permeated and influenced mainstream Victorian thought Light, 1899 New Directions in 21st-Century Gothic Lorna Piatti-Farnell, Donna Lee Brien, 2015-04-24 This book brings together a carefully selected range of contemporary disciplinary approaches to new areas of Gothic inquiry Moving beyond the representational and historically based aspects of literature and film that have dominated Gothic studies this volume both acknowledges the contemporary diversification of Gothic scholarship and maps its changing and mutating incarnations Drawing strength from their fascinating diversity and points of correlation the varied perspectives and subject areas cohere around a number of core themes of re evaluation discovery and convergence to reveal emerging trends and new directions in Gothic scholarship Visiting fascinating areas including the Gothic and digital realities uncanny food experiences representations of death and the public media Gothic creatures and their popular legacies new approaches to contemporary Gothic literature and re evaluations of the Gothic mode through regional narratives essays reveal many patterns and intersecting approaches forcefully testifying to the multifaceted although lucidly coherent nature of Gothic studies in the 21st Century The multiple disciplines represented from digital inquiry to food studies from fine art to dramaturgy engage with the Gothic in order to offer new definitions and methodological approaches to Gothic scholarship The interdisciplinary transnational focus of this volume provides exciting new insights into and expanded and revitalised definitions of the Gothic and its related fields

Victorian Women and the Theatre of Trance Amy Lehman, 2014-01-10 Spiritualists in the nineteenth century spoke of the Borderland a shadowy threshold where the living communed with the dead and where those in the material realm could receive comfort or advice from another world The skilled performances of mostly female actors and performers made the Borderland a theatre of sorts in which dramas of revelation and recognition were produced in the forms of seances trances and spiritualist lectures This book examines some of the most fascinating American and British actresses of the Victorian era whose performances fairly mesmerized their audiences of amused skeptics and ardent believers It also focuses on the transformative possibilities of the spiritualist theatre revealing how the performances allowed Victorian women to speak act and create outside the boundaries of their restricted social and psychological roles

The Confusion of Worlds Heiner Schwenke, 2019-01-31 The idea of the resurrection of the physical body and the eternal continuation of life with this body in a future paradisiacal kingdom of God on earth is one of the most enigmatic of religious ideas It fully contradicts our knowledge of the transitoriness of all things in this universe According to the author the origin for this idea lies in certain forms of otherworld experiences as for example reported by people who had near death experiences encounters with the dead in brilliantly beautiful bodies and the experience of paradisiacal seemingly earthly landscapes He observes that cultures with a pre modern cosmology sometimes projected such otherworld experiences onto this world to distant and unknown locations on earth These experiences were the blueprint for an expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth The author establishes parallels between the reports of otherworld experiences and the eschatological ideas of Zoroastrianism Judaism and Christianity He shows that otherworld experiences can indeed foster the expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth by referring to the Ghost Dance movement of the Lakota people in 1890 He presumes that the confusion of worlds proved fatal not only for the Lakota people but also for Jesus of Nazareth
