

History - Making of America...

How and why the USA expanded from 1789 to 1838:

- ↳ Gained Independence from Britain = 1789
- ↳ Louisiana Purchase 1803 - bought from French for $15 million
 - 530 million acres
 - Biggest expansion.
- ↳ Slavery - 1793, Eli Whitney created cotton gin
 - increased cotton production + trade
 - more demand for land for plantations = expansion
- ↳ Indian Removal act 1830 - Andrew Jackson president
 - Opened up new land for expansion
 - Some Indians fought (Seminoles)
 - Forced off land (Trail of tears)

The culture of the plains Indians Lakota Sioux:

- ↳ lived on Plains - vast open grasslands with few resources.
- ↳ Skilled with horses and track buffalo herds.
- ↳ Trade with the whites for guns 1830+
- ↳ Believed in 'great spirit' - land couldn't be bought/sold as it had spirit
- ↳ Warrior culture.

Causes of migration to the West 1839-60:

- ↳ Economic downturn - 1837
 - banks collapsed in the East
- ↳ Advertisements - said there was rich farming in the West.
- ↳ Pre-Emption act 1841 - farmer who built a house and cleared trees would get first dibs on land.
- ↳ Manifest Destiny 1845 - the belief whites have a god given right to expand.
- ↳ Lewis + Clark - explorers mapped way West.

In America A History Of The Making:

Mexicans in the Making of America Neil Foley, 2014-10-06 America has always been a composite of racially blended peoples never a purely white Anglo Protestant nation The Mexican American historian Neil Foley offers a sweeping view of the evolution of Mexican America from a colonial outpost on Mexico's northern frontier to a twenty first century people integral to the nation they have helped build

Slavery and the Making of America James Oliver Horton, Lois E. Horton, 2005 This companion volume to the four part PBS series on the history of American slavery narrated by Morgan Freeman and scheduled to air in February 2006 illuminates the human side of this inhumane institution presenting it largely through the stories of the slaves themselves Features 120 illustrations

Making History G.A. Bremner, Jonathan Conlin, 2015-10-15 Freeman was an idiosyncratic and imaginative polymath who saw past and present as interwoven and had a gift for bringing history alive A colourful and outspoken Victorian he provides a historical context for current debates on multi culturalism race and national identity This volume fills an important gap in the history of Victorian thought

Making History Matter Robert Dawidoff, 2000 This collection of Robert Dawidoff's essays and journalism is peopled by the likes of the Founding Fathers Fred Astaire Henry and William James Sophie Tucker Trent Lott and Cole Porter Drawing together this unlikely cast of characters Dawidoff probes into the role of outsider groups as well as intellectual and political elites in the formation of American culture As a scholar of intellectual and cultural history Dawidoff takes the stance that historians ought to take an active role in our democratic culture informing and participating in public discourse He argues for a broad reach when it comes to cultural expression resisting the polarization of formal intellectual history and folk or commercial popular culture In his view and in his book Ralph Waldo Emerson and Katharine Hepburn are equally worthy topics for a historian's consideration providing that they are treated with equal seriousness of purpose and analytic rigor In The Gay Nineties section that closes the book he traces key events in the continual struggle for gay and lesbian civil rights and takes on such unresolved issues as safer sex needle exchange programs to control HIV transmission and the public controversy around the portrayal of gay and lesbian television characters Divided into sections that deal with the patriarchs of American political and intellectual culture expressive culture and a historian's public voice this book is a model of engaged and engaging writing Accessible and witty Making History Matter will appeal to general and academic readers interested in American history as well as gay and lesbian political and cultural issues

Author note Robert Dawidoff is John D and Lillian Maguire Distinguished Chair and Professor of History at Claremont Graduate University He is most recently the author with Michael Nava of Created Equal Why Gay Rights Matter to America and The Genteel Tradition and the Sacred Rage High Culture V Democracy in Adams James and Santayana

Make It In America, Updated Edition Andrew Liveris, 2011-12-15 The case for revolutionizing the U S economy from a leading CEO America used to define itself by the things we built We designed and produced the world's most important innovations and in doing so created a vibrant manufacturing sector that established the middle class We manufactured our way to the top and became the undisputed economic leader of the world But over the last several decades and especially in the last ten years the sector that was America s great pride has eroded costing us millions of jobs and putting our long term prosperity at risk Now as we struggle to recover from the worst recession in generations our only chance to turn things around is to revive the American manufacturing sector and to revolutionize it In Make It in America The Case for Reinventing the Economy Andrew Liveris Chairman and CEO of The Dow Chemical Company offers a thoughtful and passionate argument that America s future economic growth and prosperity depends on the strength of its manufacturing sector The book explains how a manufacturing sector creates economic value on a scale unmatched by any other and how central the sector is to creating jobs both inside and outside the factory Explores how other nations are building their manufacturing sectors to stay competitive in the global economy and describes how America has failed to keep up Provides an aggressive practical and comprehensive agenda that will put the U S back on track to lead the world It s time to stop accepting as inevitable the shuttering of factories and staggering job losses that have come to define manufacturing It s time to acknowledge the cost of inaction There is no better company to make the case for reviving U S manufacturing than The Dow Chemical Company one of the world s largest manufacturers and most global corporations And there s no better book to show why it needs to be done and how to do it than Make It in America The Birth of City Planning in the United States, 1840-1917 Jon A. Peterson, 2003-09-10 Publisher Description Making the Modern American Fiscal State Ajay K. Mehrotra, 2013-09-30 At the turn of the twentieth century the US system of public finance underwent a dramatic transformation The late nineteenth century regime of indirect hidden partisan and regressive taxes was eclipsed in the early twentieth century by a direct transparent professionally administered and progressive tax system This book uncovers the contested roots and paradoxical consequences of this fundamental shift in American tax law and policy It argues that the move toward a regime of direct and graduated taxation marked the emergence of a new fiscal polity a new form of statecraft that was guided not simply by the functional need for greater revenue but by broader social concerns about economic justice civic identity bureaucratic capacity and public power Between the end of Reconstruction and the onset of the Great Depression the intellectual legal and administrative foundations of the modern fiscal state first took shape This book explains how and why this new fiscal polity came to be Making Slavery History Margot Minardi, 2010-10 Examining how memory both catalyzes and curtails social change this book concerns how commemorative culture shaped antislavery politics in early national Massachusetts Abolitionists drew on their state s Revolutionary heritage to mobilize opposition to Southern slavery but black and white activists diverged in terms of how they idealized black historical agency Making the Empire Work Daniel E. Bender, Jana K. Lipman, 2015-07-17 Millions of laborers from the Philippines to the Caribbean performed the work of the United States empire Forging a global economy connecting the tropics to the industrial center workers harvested sugar cleaned hotel rooms provided sexual favors and filled military ranks Placing working men and women at the center of the long history of the U S empire these essays offer new stories of empire that intersect with the grand narratives of diplomatic affairs at the national and international levels Missile defense Cold War showdowns development politics military combat tourism and banana economics share something in common they all have labor histories This collection challenges historians to consider the labor that formed worked confronted and rendered the U S empire visible The U S empire is a project of global labor mobilization coercive management military presence and forced cultural encounter Together the essays in this volume recognize the United States as a global imperial player whose systems of labor mobilization and migration stretched from Central America to West Africa to the United States itself Workers are also the key actors in this volume Their stories are multi vocal as workers sometimes defied the U S empire s rhetoric of civilization peace and stability and at other times navigated its networks or benefited from its profits Their experiences reveal the gulf between the American denial of empire and the lived practice of management resource exploitation and military exigency When historians place labor and working people at the center empire appears as a central dynamic of U S history

Making Black History Jeffrey Aaron Snyder,2018 Making Black History focuses on the engine behind the early black history movement in the Jim Crow era Carter G Woodson and his Association for the Study of Negro Life and History

A Theoretical Approach to Modern American History and Literature W. Lawrence Hogue,2020-01-10 This book reconfigures the history of modern America showing how multiple and at times vulnerable social economic literary and political movements levels divisions and conditions such as the emergent middle class the labor movement the Progressive Movement the socialist and communist parties the Women s movements the NAACP the Garvey movement Asian and Native American resistance movements writers artists and intellectuals seized upon social gender economic and racial inequalities and challenged a singularly defined modern America This book re represents the modern American novel accenting the different critical literary voices that come out of the mainstream consumer society but also out of the various unequal social economic gender and political movements and situations In including racial gender sexual colonial class and ethnic others who reject the rigidity the repression the racial and ethnic stereotyping the external and internal colonialism the complication rejection of the past nature and the violence of the institutionalized conformist norm in a discussion of the modern American novel it effects a fundamental recasting of the modern Americanist paradigm one that is de centered richer more complex and more diverse

Making America Berkin,Carol Berkin,2002-07

The Challenge of American History Louis P. Masur,1999-05-20 In The Challenge of American History Louis Masur brings together a sampling of recent scholarship to determine the key issues preoccupying historians of American history and to contemplate the discipline s direction for the future The fifteen summary essays included in this volume allow professional historians history teachers and students to grasp in a convenient and accessible form what historians have been writing about

The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David Yoo,Eiichiro Azuma,2016 The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History brings together 27 essays that engage the state of the field with historiographically informed but creative approaches to this diverse and vibrant area The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history

Making It in America Elliott Robert Barkan, 2001-05-01 This collection of over 400 biographies of eminent ethnic Americans celebrates a wide array of inspiring individuals and their contributions to U S history The stories of these 400 eminent ethnic Americans are a testimony to the enduring power of the American dream These men and women from 90 different ethnic groups certainly faced unequal access to opportunities Yet they all became renowned artists writers political and religious leaders scientists and athletes Kahlil Gibran Daniel Inouye Zbigniew Brzezinski Thurgood Marshall Madeleine Albright and many others are living proof that the land of opportunity sometimes lives up to its name Alongside these success stories as historian Elliot R Barkan notes in his introduction to this volume there have been many failures and many immigrants who did not stay in the United States Nevertheless the stories of these trailblazers visionaries and champions portray the breadth of possibilities from organizing a nascent community to winning the Nobel prize They also provide irrefutable evidence that no single generation and no single cultural heritage can claim credit for what America is

The Construction of Irish Identity in American Literature Christopher Dowd, 2010-09-13 This book examines the development of literary constructions of Irish American identity from the mid nineteenth century arrival of the Famine generation through the Great Depression It goes beyond an analysis of negative Irish stereotypes and shows how Irish characters became the site of intense cultural debate regarding American identity with some writers imagining Irishness to be the antithesis of Americanness but others suggesting Irishness to be a path to Americanization This study emphasizes the importance of considering how a sense of Irishness was imagined by both Irish American writers conscious of the process of self definition as well as non Irish writers responsive to shifting cultural concerns regarding ethnic others It analyzes specific iconic Irish American characters including Mark Twain's Huck Finn and Margaret Mitchell's Scarlett O'Hara as well as lesser known Irish monsters who lurked in the American imagination such as T S Eliot's Sweeney and Frank Norris McTeague As Dowd argues in contemporary American society Irishness has been largely absorbed into a homogenous white culture and as a result it has become a largely invisible ethnicity to many modern literary critics Too often they simply do not see Irishness or do not think it relevant and as a result many Irish American characters have been de-ethnicized in the critical literature of the past century This volume reestablishes the importance of Irish ethnicity to many characters that have come to be misread as generically white and shows how Irishness is integral to their stories
