Of New York Firsts:

The Book of New York Firsts Henry Moscow,1995-04-01 Everything you wanted to know about the unusual arcane and fascinating in the life of New York City The term only in New York takes on new meaning in page after page of this intriguing survey of firsts in one of the world s greatest cities from extraordinary people to ghosts and graves from troubles and aspirations to crimes and disasters For six years the City had a governor who dressed in his wife s clothes and paraded along Broadway until his soldiers dragged him home The City s first subway dug in secret under Broadway in 1870 had elegant cars propelled by wind from a big fan The City s first settlers were not Dutchmen but French speaking Protestant Belgians in 1624 who were followed by African Blacks in 1625 The first City Hall had a tavern on the premises to quench the thirst of City Fathers with beer and schnapps The City s first bagel was produced in Clinton Street in 1896 but its ancestors date back to fourteenth century German boar hunts

Natural History Survey,1843 New York and the First World War

Ross J. Wilson,2016-05-06 The First World War constitutes a point in the history of New York when its character and identity were challenged recast and reinforced Due to its pre eminent position as a financial and trading centre its role in the conflict was realised far sooner than elsewhere in the United States This book uses city state and federal archives newspaper reports publications leaflets and the well established ethnic press in the city at the turn of the century to explore how the city and its citizens responded to their role in the First World War from the outbreak in August 1914 through the official entry of the United States in to the war in 1917 and after the cessation of hostilities in the memorials and monuments to the conflict The war and its aftermath forever altered politics economics and social identities within the city but its import is largely obscured in the history of the twentieth century This book therefore fills an important gap in the histories of New York and the First World War Minutes of the First Annual Session of the Synod of New York, Held at Utica. N. Y., October 17-20, A. D. 1882.
