Abma,2018-03-20 Bonds of love offers a fresh interpretation of a selection of prophetic texts that present the covenant relationship as a marital relationship The accent in this study is on method historical and biographical categories such as the prophet and his career are left aside in order to concentrate on the composition and internal cohesion of the text The reading strategy developed in this book is both synchronic and communication oriented Since prophetic texts essentially consist of speech it is insufficient to study the text in abstraction from the audience that it addresses The texts have a communication purpose and a three part model is developed in order to investigate the communication effects of the text on the implied audience and the contemporary reader The studies of Isaiah 50 and 54 Hosea 1 3 and Jeremiah 2 3 reveal that a synchronic interpretation of these texts can be very fruitful Larger patterns of coherence come to the surface when one refrains from the procedure of atomizing the texts in original and secondary parts The final chapter is devoted to the theological implications of the marriage imagery What intriguing model of divine and human partnership is presented here And what sort of intimate interaction between Yhwh and Israel is precisely envisioned Bond of Love Amy Suzanne,2013-12-06 As a picturesque

Charity the Bond of Perfectness: or, Christ's Law of Love the perfectest scheme of relative duty and human happiness, etc Benjamin Owen,1729 The Bond of Love: Catholic Teaching on Marriage & Sexual Ethics Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk,2025-09-10 Contemporary attitudes toward marriage family life and human sexuality have undergone profound changes since the mid twentieth century spurred by a host of social and cultural factors Large segments of the population in the West now hold views on marriage and sexual ethics that are very different from the values and norms taught by the Church Indeed Catholic teaching on the truth of marriage and human sexuality is open to strong criticism including among groups of Catholics and seems at best poorly understood In The Bond of Love Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk provides a comprehensive and unflinching account of the Church s teaching on marriage and sexual ethics dispelling misconceptions and elucidating its truth with grace and clarity As he demonstrates far from being a set of arbitrary rules that constrain human freedom this teaching is instead a deep wisdom for human flourishing anchored in the truth of God and man divinely revealed within Scripture Tradition and the Gospel Eijk first locates Catholic teaching on marriage and sexuality in relation to the currently dominant views in Western society He follows this with an exposition of the fundamental starting point of the Church s teaching on the nature of marriage and sexuality rooted in theological anthropology Next discussed is the virtue of chastity the integration of the sexual faculties into the personality and what it requires of both married and unmarried persons The volume concludes by addressing practices and circumstances that violate the essence of marriage This powerful witness to the truth and beauty of Catholic teaching on marriage and sexual ethics is a vital resource for pastors teachers and all of the Church s faithful striving to live in the love and communion that is grounded in Christ

The Holy Spirit as Communion I. Leon Harris, 2017-09-26 In The Holy Spirit as Communion Leon Harris examines the pneumatologies of Colin Gunton and Frank Macchia For both theologians the doctrine of the Holy Spirit is foundational to understanding their doctrine of God Christology and ecclesiology Drawing on the theme of communion The Holy Spirit as Communion expresses the concept that the Holy Spirit is the person who perfects the divine nature and personhood of the Father and Son It is the Holy Spirit who perfects the eternal communion within the divine Trinity which is the source of the divine action that also perfects the communion in creation as an expression of the Father's will through Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit as Communion explores the essentiality of the Holy Spirit through a unique approach to Spirit Christology Gunton is represented by a radicalized version of Chalcedon Christology and Macchia formulates his account through the overarching metaphor of Spirit baptism Therefore the doctrine of God Christology ecclesiology and eschatology cannot be construed without a proper account of pneumatology that takes into consideration the eschatological perfecting work of the third person of the Trinity who perfects creation's koinonia as a gift from the Father through the grace of Jesus Christ
