Critique Rita Roos, 2006 Critic and theorist Rita Roos 1956 1996 grew up a member of Finland's indigenous Swedish speaking minority a population of 350 000 with a strong writing culture When she died in her fortieth year she left behind the essays and interviews collected here edited on the tenth anniversary of her passing by Anders Kruger and by her twin sister the painter Nina Roos Rita Roos's work for Helsinki's Hufvudstadsbladet newspaper and for Siksi the Nordic Art Review for which she was the Finnish editor document a lively local art scene and also range over the international art world to include coverage of work by Gerhard Richter Anish Kapoor Rosemarie Trockel Louise Lawler Cindy Sherman Laurie Simmons and Damien Hirst This volume is published not only as a tribute to a vibrant committed art writer but as the editors write as an example of what journalism can be In that sense this book can be understood as obliquely polemical in relation to the current debate about the function and quality of criticism Roos herself asks in an interview here What can art say that science cannot and answers that question along with many more We are All Normal (and We Want Our Freedom) Katya

Sander, Simon Sheikh, 2001 We are all normal and we want our freedom is a collection of contemporary Nordic artists writings At once a mapping of and an introduction to contemporary artistic practice in the Nordic region We are all normal also indicates the historical precedents and traditions informing this work The purpose of this book is two fold to focus on thematics and thinking that have been present in the region but also internationally from an artistic rather than art historical point of view and to use art writing instrumentally as well as allegorically to discuss the politics and subjectivities of contemporary Nordic Post Cold War and possibly even Post Welfare society If there is one particular notion seemingly prevalent in the Nordic region it could be referred to as the confluence of welfare and freedom Where do you find your freedom's and how be it in the wilds within a specific notion of society or internalised in the individual subject and his or her organising of social surroundings Since World War II the Nordic countries have not only epitomised welfare freedom democracy and peace on the world stage but within this region as in the rest of the West the role of the artist has signified the ultimate free man In this context We are all normal sets out to explore a wide range of issues relevant to contemporary art and society from the Care of self to the Politics of pop Back cover Inferno : Peter Bonde ... ; [udgivet i objects and artistic personalities as its starting point the exhibition traces a number of moments when their impact has proven both particularly strong and highly stimulating for subsequent artists
