A Mother's Love: A Tapestry of Love and Laughter Pasquale De Marco, In this heartwarming and uplifting book we delve into the extraordinary bond between mothers and children exploring the multifaceted nature of maternal love and its profound impact on our lives Through a collection of heartfelt reflections anecdotes and stories we celebrate the unwavering devotion strength and guidance that mothers provide From the moment a mother holds her child in her arms for the first time an unbreakable connection is forged This love knows no bounds transcending time distance and circumstance Mothers are our pillars of support the foundation upon which we build our dreams and aspirations They are our guiding lights illuminating the path ahead with their wisdom and experience They are our shoulders to lean on providing comfort and solace in times of need A mother s love is a powerful force that shapes who we are It nurtures our growth encourages us to reach our full potential and helps us overcome challenges with resilience and determination Mothers teach us the lessons that shape our values and beliefs imparting practical wisdom and moral guidance that stays with us throughout our lives They instill in us a sense of self worth and confidence empowering us to face the world with courage and grace The love between a mother and child is a two way street a reciprocal flow of affection and appreciation As children grow and mature they come to understand the depth of their mother s love and the sacrifices they have made They learn to express their gratitude and cherish the bond they share They become pillars of support in their own right returning the love and care they have received creating a circle of love that extends across generations With each chapter this book celebrates the extraordinary women who have touched our lives with their love and devotion We honor their unwavering belief in us their unconditional support and their ability to make us feel loved and cherished We cherish the memories and traditions that connect us to our mothers weaving a tapestry of love that will last a lifetime This book is a tribute to the extraordinary bond between mothers and children a bond that is as unique and precious as the individuals who share it It is a celebration of the love that knows no bounds a love that shapes our lives and makes us who we are If you like this book write a review

Leading with Love and Laughter Zina Sutch, Patrick Malone, 2021-05-25 Leadership has for too long been treated as a function and not as a relationship Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone argue that successful leadership must be based on love altruism and empathy and laughter positive emotions and joy Science tells us that humans are deeply wired for empathy and compassion and that our emotional selves help us make better decisions and motivate others However the tactics we use to train leaders bear little reflection of these advancements we re still creating competent but emotionally distant leaders who manage human assets and lead by setting goals deadlines and deliverables Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone hope to flip a light switch and illuminate above all else that leadership begins with heart and soul Too many training programs reduce leadership to an equation matrix or acronym But leadership is a relationship It s one human helping another The most successful leaders show they genuinely care about their employees and are well fun It s just like any relationship In seven succinct chapters the authors show that people lead best when they tap into their genetically driven human nature to love and nurture connect and trust Leading with love and laughter offers powerful dividends tighter teams stronger performance improved morale greater trust more creativity and even better health While Sutch and Malone cite the science and offer examples tips and practices their larger purpose is to reintroduce the warmth of human interaction and emotion as the foundation of what leadership is all about

Childhood disabilities particularly cognitive disabilities are on the rise yet social programs and services to help US families respond to disabilities are not Many families turn to grandparents for assistance juggling work family responsibilities and specialized therapies This book is based on in depth interviews with grandparents who are providing at least some care to grandchildren with disabilities The analyses will help to better understand 1 under what conditions grandparents provide care and support 2 what types and intensities of care and support grandparents provide and 3 the impact of that care and support on grandparents social emotional physical and financial wellbeing In this fascinating and provocative book Madonna Harrington Meyer and Ynesse Abdul Malak take readers on a deep dive into the complex lives of grandparents who care for their disabled grandchildren In Grandparenting Children with Disabilities their interviews reveal the joy meaning and purpose grandparents find in caregiving the challenges and frustrations they encounter and the many ways they compromise their own health and well being for the sake of their grandchildren Drawing from theories of cumulative inequality and from their deep knowledge of the US policy context the authors lay bare the systemic failures that leave families of children with disabilities without adequate support and that place the most vulnerable among them at grave physical emotional and financial risk Jane McLeod Provost Professor Indiana University Grandparents in the U S already take on far more parenting responsibilities as compared to their peers in other countries Grandparenting Children with Disabilities demonstrates that the intensity of these responsibilities is compounded for those whose grandchildren have disabilities given limited policy supports and a society still largely unaccommodating to those with disabilities This book beautifully navigates the tension between the love these grandparents have for their grandchildren and the challenges they face caring for them Pamela Herd Professor Georgetown University Grandparenting Children with Disabilities offers important insights about the lived experience of older adults who care for and care about their grandchildren The authors skillfully integrate the stories they tell with consideration of macro social structural influences and life course perspectives I recommend it highly Eva Kahana Distinguished University Professor Case Western Reserve
