Revolution, and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village, 1925-2006 Hy Van Luong,2010-08-15 Tradition Revolution and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village examines both continuity and change over eight decades in a small rural village deep in the North Vietnamese countryside Son Duong a community near the Red River experienced firsthand the ravages of French colonialism and the American war as well as the socialist revolution and Vietnam s recent reintegration into the global market economy In this revised and expanded edition of his 1992 book Revolution in the Village Hy V Luong draws on newly available archival documents in Hanoi narratives by villagers and three field seasons from the late 1980s to 2006 He situates his finely drawn village portrait within the historical framework of the Vietnamese revolution and the recent reforms in Vietnam The richness of the oral testimony of surviving villagers enables the author to follow them throughout political and economic upheavals compiling a wealth of original data as they actively restructure their daily lives In his analysis of the implications of these data for theoretical models of agrarian transformation Luong argues that local traditions have played a major role in shaping villagers responses to colonialism socialist policies and the global market economy His work spanning eight decades of sociocultural change will interest students and scholars of the Vietnamese revolution
