Book Of Things About Vladimir Nabokov:

A Book of Things about Vladimir Nabokov Carl R. Proffer, 1974      Anatomy of a Short Story Yuri Leving, 2012-05-24 A unique anthology devoted to a single story Signs and Symbols by Vladimir Nabokov which exposes the way we read and interpret short stories      The Reflexive Novel Michael Boyd, 1983 Interrogating the basic assumptions of realism this study examines the postmodern phenomenon of fiction as the presentation of theories of fiction The writers critically examined include Nabokov Woolf Conrad Faulkner Joyce and Beckett      That Other World Azar Nafisi, 2019-06-25 The foundational text for the acclaimed international best seller Reading Lolita in Tehran Empathetic incisive A sweeping overview of Nabokov's major works Graceful and discerning Kirkus Reviews The ruler of a totalitarian state seeks validation from a former schoolmate now the nation's foremost thinker in order to access a cultural cache alien to his regime A literary critic provides commentary on an unfinished poem that both foretells the poet's death and announces the critic's secret identity as the king of a lost country The greatest of Vladimir Nabokov's enchanters Humbert is lost within the antithesis of a fairy story in which Lolita does not hold the key to his past but rather imprisons him within the knowledge of his distance from that past In this precursor to her international best seller Reading Lolita in Tehran Azar Nafisi deftly explores the worlds apparently lost to Nabokov's characters their portals of access to those worlds and how other worlds hold a mirror to Nabokov's experiences of physical linguistic and recollective exile Written before Nafisi left the Islamic Republic of Iran and now published in English for the first time and with a new introduction by the author this book evokes the reader's quintessential journey of discovery and reveals what caused Nabokov to distinctively shape and reshape that journey for the author      Nabokov's Permanent Mystery David S. Rutledge, 2014-01-10 This critical text examines the ways in which Vladimir Nabokov one of the twentieth century's great writers structured his works to encapsulate his metaphysical beliefs It draws examples from Nabokov's novels stories and nonfiction revealing a startling consistency in his beliefs over the course of his career even as the structure of his novels increased in complexity At the heart of his work is a profound respect for what's missing for unsolvable riddles for questions even at the expense of answers Nabokov's techniques from wordplay to plotlines reveal an enduring reverence for permanent mystery      Silent Love Gerard Vries, 2019-08-28 The Real Life of Sebastian Knight is one of Vladimir Nabokov's most autobiographical novels and it has often been observed that Sebastian's passionate affair with the femme fatale Nina Rechnoy is a dramatized extension of Nabokov's infatuation with Irina Guadanini In this book it is shown that the novel also conceals another secluded love affair Sebastian had with a man which reflects the main episode in the life of Nabokov's brother Sergey By pursuing many biographical and literary references and allusions and by disregarding the deceptive guiding by the narrator Sebastian's half brother this moving story about Sebastian's silent love becomes brightly visible      The Wreath of Wild Olive Mihai Spariosu, 1997-04-24 Examines the concept of play in Western thought with special emphasis on the relationship between aesthetics and ethics and envisions literary discourse as contributing to an alternative mentality based on peace rather than power      Nabokov's Cinematic Afterlife Ewa Mazierska, 2014-01-10 This book offers critical studies of films that adapted works by Vladimir Nabokov One of the most screened twentieth century authors with over ten books adapted for cinema his works are full of quirky and forbidden romance and his writing is renowned for its cinematic qualities e g frames stage directions and descriptions suggesting specific camera positions and movements Films discussed include Lolita both Kubrick's 1962 and Lyne's 1997 versions Richardson's Laughter in the Dark 1969 Skolimowski's King Queen Knave 1972 Fassbinder's Despair 1978 Foulon's Mademoiselle O 1994 Kuik's An Affair of Honor 1999 Gorris The Luzhin Defence 2000 and Rohmer's The Triple Agent 2004 A final chapter discusses similarities between Nabokov and Jean Luc Godard      The Garland Companion to Vladimir Nabokov Vladimir E. Alexandrov, 2014-05-22 First published in 1995 This companion constitutes a virtual encyclopaedia of Nabokov and occupies a unique niche in scholarship about him Articles on individual works by Nabokov including his short stories and poetry provide a brief survey of critical reactions and detailed analyses from diverse vantage points For anyone interested in Nabokov from scholars to readers who love his works this is an ideal guide Its chronology of Nabokov's life and works bibliographies of primary and secondary works and a detailed index make it easy to find reliable information any aspect of Nabokov's rich legacy      The Self-Conscious Novel Brian Stonehill, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas      Vladimir Nabokov Professor Norman Page, Norman Page, 2013-11-05 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995

Nabokov at Cornell Gavriel Shapiro, 2003 Table of contents      Authorship in Nabokov's Prefaces Jacqueline Hamrit, 2015-01-12 Whereas literary criticism has mainly oscillated between the death of the author Barthes and the return of the author Couturier this work suggests another perspective on authorship through an analysis of Nabokov's prefaces It is here argued that the author being neither dead nor tyrannical alternates between authoritative apparitions and receding disappearances in the double gesture of mastery without mastery which Derrida calls exappropriation that is a simultaneous attempt to appropriate one's work control it have it under one's power and expropriate it losing control by loosening one's grip The intention of this is to approach through one's experience of reading and interpreting the experience of self effacement and impersonality pertaining to writing cf Blanchot Prefaces are considered to be suitable places for the deconstruction of the classical image of Nabokov's arrogance through the unearthing of his reserve and vulnerability This work provides an account of the mere intuition which therefore does not pretend to be a conclusive and definitive interpretation of another image of Nabokov whose undeniable talent for deception seems in accordance with a need for discretion and secrecy      Transparent Things Vladimir Vladimirovič Nabokov, Vladimír Nabokov, 2011 The darkly comic Transparent Things one of Nabokov's final books traces the bleak life of Hugh Person through murder madness prison and trips to Switzerland One of these was the last journey his father ever took on another having been sent to ingratiate himself with a distinguished novelist he met his future wife Nabokov's brilliant short novel sinks into the transparent things of the world that surround this one Person to the silent histories they carry Remarkable even in Nabokov's work for its depth and lyricism Transparent Things is a small experimental marvel of memories and dreams both sentimental and malign

Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading Julian W. Connolly, 1997 In an unnamed dream country Cincinnatus C is condemned to death by beheading for gnostical turpitude an imaginary crime that defies definition After spending his last days in jail he simply wills his executioners out of existence      Nabokov and His Books Duncan White, 2017 At the outbreak of the Second World War Vladimir Nabokov stood on the brink of losing everything all over again The reputation he had built as the pre eminent Russian novelist in exile was imperilled In Nabokov and his Books Duncan White shows how Nabokov went to America and not only reinvented himself as an American writer but also used the success of Lolita to rescue those Russian books that had been threatened by obscurity Using previously unpublished and neglected material White tells the story of Nabokov the professional writer and how he sought to balance his late modernist aesthetics with the demands of a booming American literary marketplace As Nabokov's reputation grew so he took greater and greater control of how his books were produced making the material form of the book including forewords blurbs covers part of the novel In his later novels including Pale Fire Invitation to a Beheading and Transparent Things the idea of the novelist losing control of his work became the subject of the novels themselves These plots were replicated in Nabokov's own biography as he discovered his inability to control the forces the market success of Lolita had unleashed With new insights into Nabokov's life and work this book reconceptualises the way we think about one of the most important and influential novelists of the twentieth century      Acting and Reflecting Wilfried Sieg, 2012-12-06 In the fall of 1985 Carnegie Mellon University established a Department of Philosophy The focus of the department is logic broadly conceived philosophy of science in particular of the social sciences and linguistics To mark the inauguration of the department a daylong celebration was held on April 5 1986 This celebration consisted of two keynote addresses by Patrick Suppes and Thomas Schwartz seminars directed by members of the department and a panel discussion on the computational model of mind moderated by Dana S Scott The various contributions in modified and expanded form are the core of this collection of essays and they are I believe of more than parochial interest they turn attention to substantive and reflective interdisciplinary work The collection is divided into three parts The first part gives perspectives i on general features of the interdisciplinary enterprise in philosophy by Patrick Suppes Thomas Schwartz Herbert A Simon and Clark Glymour and ii on a particular topic that invites such interaction namely computational models of the mind with contributions by

Gilbert Harman John Haugeland Jay McClelland and Allen Newell The second part contains mostly informal reports on concrete research done within that enter prise the research topics range from decision theory and the philosophy of economics through foundational problems in mathematics to issues in aesthetics and computational linguistics The third part is a postscriptum by Isaac Levi analyzing directions of computational work from his perspective      The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman, Rita Dworkin, 1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world      The Achievements of Vladimir Nabokov Stephen Jan Parker, 1984      A Sense of Things Bill Brown, 2003 In May 1906 the Atlantic Monthly commented that Americans live not merely in an age of things but under the tyranny of them and that in our relentless effort to sell purchase and accumulate things we do not possess them as much as they possess us For Bill Brown the tale of that possession is something stranger than the history of a culture of consumption It is the story of Americans using things to think about themselves Brown's captivating new study explores the roots of modern America's fascination with things and the problem that objects posed for American literature at the turn of the century This was an era when the invention production distribution and consumption of things suddenly came to define a national culture Brown shows how crucial novels of the time made things not a solution to problems but problems in their own right Writers such as Mark Twain Frank Norris Sarah Orne Jewett and Henry James ask why and how we use objects to make meaning to make or remake ourselves to organize our anxieties and affections to sublimate our fears and to shape our wildest dreams Offering a remarkably new way to think about materialism A Sense of Things will be essential reading for anyone interested in American literature and culture
