Excerpt from Twenty Years Ago A Book of Anecdote Illustrating Literary Life in London This is frankly a book of anecdote It aims at illustrating a phase of literary life as I knew it at the close of the Seventies and during the first half of the Eighties In 1879 I entered the publishing house of Tinsley Brothers and I was busily employed at No 8 Catherine Street Strand until the Autumn of 1884 My memory of my Catherine Street days is vivid At that time literary Bohemianism was decadent The pulse still throbbed but one could feel that the beat was failing There were Ambrosial Nights and days but the banquets were fast becoming Barmecidal feasts Bohemianism in the Strand is now merely a memory Not only are the times and the men changed but the manners and the methods of the literary world of to day are as different from those of the Seventies and the early Eighties as if a century had elapsed or as if the periphery of the Strand had been shifted fifty degrees west About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Good Literature ,1883 Mrs. Stephens' Illustrated New Monthly ,1856 The Book Buyer ,1869
