Barnard's American journal of education, 1863 The Rise and Fall of California's Radical Prison Movement Eric Cummins, 1994 This is a history of the California prison movement from 1950 to 1980 focusing on the San Francisco Bay Area s San Quentin State Prison and highlighting the role that prison reading and writing played in the creation of radical inmate ideology in those years The book begins with the Caryl Chessman years 1948 60 and closes with the trial of the San Quentin Six 1975 76 and the passage of California s Determinate Sentencing Law 1977 This was an extraordinary era in the California prisons one that saw the emergence of a highly developed radical convict resistance movement inside prison walls This inmate groundswell was fueled at times by remarkable individual prisoners at other times by groups like the Black Muslims or the San Quentin chapter of the Black Panther Party But most often resistance grew from much wider sources and in quiet corners from dozens of political study groups throughout the prison from an underground San Quentin newspaper and from covert attempts to organize a prisoners union The book traces the rise and fall of the prisoners movement ending with the inevitably bloody confrontation between prisoners and the state and the subsequent prison administration crackdown The author examines the efforts of prison staff to augment other methods of inmate management by attempting to modify convict ideology by means of bibliotherapy and communication control and describes convict resistance to these attempts as control He also discusses how Bay Area political activists became intensely involved in San Quentin and how such writings as Chessman's Cell 2455 Cleaver's Soul on Ice and Jackson's Soledad Brother reached far beyond prison walls to influence opinion events and policy Antiquarian Bookman ,1963 American Journal of Education and College Review ,1864 Vol 25 is the report of the commissioner of education for 1880 v 29 report for 1877 American Journal of Education ,1864 The Insider's Guide to Old Books, Magazines, Newspapers, Trade Catalogs Ronald S.
