The Printed Book in Contemporary American Culture Heike Schaefer, Alexander Starre, 2019-08-28 This essay collection explores the cultural functions the printed book performs in the digital age It examines how the use of and attitude toward the book form have changed in light of the digital transformation of American media culture. Situated at the crossroads of American studies, literary studies, book studies, and media studies, these essays show that a sustained focus on the medial and material formats of literary communication significantly expands our accustomed ways of doing cultural studies. Addressing the changing roles of authors, publishers, and readers while covering multiple bookish formats such as artists' books, bestselling novels, experimental fiction, and zines, this interdisciplinary volume introduces readers to current transatlantic conversations on the history and future of the printed book.

Transcultural Encounters in Knowledge Production and Consumption Xianlin Song, Youzhong Sun, 2017-09-22

This book is a distinctive collection on transcultural encounters in knowledge production and consumption which are situated at the heart of pursuit for cognitive justice. It uniquely represents transcultural dialogues between academics of Australia, China, and Malaysia located on the borders of different knowledge systems. The uniqueness of this volume lies in the convergence of transcultural perspectives which bring together diverse disciplines as cultural studies, education, media translation theory and practice, arts, musicology, political science, and literature. Each chapter explores the possibility of decolonising the knowledge production space as well as research methodologies. The chapters engage with Chinese and western thought on transcultural subjects and collectively articulate a new politics of difference, de-centring the dominant epistemologies and research paradigms in the global academia. Refracted through transcultural theories and practices adapted to diverse traditions, histories, and regional affiliations and directed toward an international transcultural audience, the volume demonstrates expansive possibilities in knowledge production and contributes to the understanding of and between research scholarship which deals with collective societal and cultural challenges within the globalised world we live in. It would be of interest to researchers engaged with current critical debates in general and global scholars in transcultural and intercultural studies in specific.
