Tractates and Sermons Richard Hooker,1990 Although Richard Hooker 1554 1600 is now known principally as the author of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity in his lifetime the Tractates and Sermons brought him greater notoriety Hooker s views on justification the perseverance of faith and the relationship of the Church of Rome to the reformed Church of England were widely reported and texts of the tracts were extensively circulated in manuscript Thanks to the meticulous editing of Laetitia Yeandle Curator of Manuscripts at the Folger Shakespeare Library the contemporary impact of these debates can now be appreciated for the first time These tracts provide a unique perspective on the turbulent world of late Elizabethan theology In addition they lay the doctrinal foundations of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity itself and with the excellent commentary of Egil Grislis Professor of Theology at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg enable us to trace the intellectual formation of sixteenth century England s most innovative and provocative theologian The volume includes a newly discovered letter three newly attributed sermon fragments and analysis by P F Forte of Hooker s distinctive preaching style

Reassembling the Republic of Letters in the Digital Age Howard Hotson, Thomas Wallnig, 2019 Between 1500 and 1800 the rapid evolution of postal communication allowed ordinary men and women to scatter letters across Europe like never before This exchange helped knit together what contemporaries called the respublica litteraria a knowledge based civil society crucial to that era s intellectual breakthroughs formative of many modern values and institutions and a potential cornerstone of a transnational level of European identity Ironically the exchange of letters which created this community also dispersed the documentation required to study it posing enormous difficulties for historians of the subject ever since To reassemble that scattered material and chart the history of that imagined community we need a revolution in digital communications Between 2014 and 2018 an EU networking grant assembled an interdisciplinary community of over 200 experts from 33 different countries and many different fields for four years of structured discussion The aim was to envisage transnational digital infrastructure for facilitating the radically multilateral collaboration needed to reassemble this scattered documentation and to support a new generation of scholarly work and public dissemination The framework emerging from those discussions potentially applicable also to other forms of intellectual cultural and economic exchange in other periods and regions is documented in this book
