A Companion to American Fiction, 1865 - 1914 Robert Paul Lamb, G. R. Thompson, 2008-04-15 A Companion to American Fiction 1865 1914 is a groundbreaking collection of essays written by leading critics for a wide audience of scholars students and interested general readers An exceptionally broad ranging and accessible Companion to the study of American fiction of the post civil war period and the early twentieth century Brings together 29 essays by top scholars each of which presents a synthesis of the best research and offers an original perspective Divided into sections on historical traditions and genres contexts and themes and major authors Covers a mixture of canonical and the non canonical themes authors literatures and critical approaches Explores innovative topics such as ecological literature and ecocriticism children s literature and the influence of Darwin on fiction The Woman Writer and the Spoken Word Trinna Suzanne Frever, 1998 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 , 2008-02 CR. The Centennial Review , 1989 When the Island Had Fish Janna Malamud Smith, 2023-07-15 When the Island had Fish is the story of a tiny island Vinalhaven Maine that offers a close look at the significant history of Maine fishing particularly but also offers perspective on the impact of industrialized fishing on small fishing villages all over the United States and the world Vinalhaven s documented habitation by fishermen dates back over 5000 years and still today lobstering is the primary source of employment for its 1100 year round residents islanders currently harvest lobsters at a rate almost unrivaled nationally The book investigates the changing meanings of the notion of a fishing community and of community members changing relationships with the natural world and with international commerce Through this broader lens it sheds light on the way that species including humans are impacted by and at moments contribute to climate change environmental degradation and sustainable and unsustainable uses of natural resources When the Island had Fish also provides a meditation on America s past and future Vinalhaven s fishing history is in every way America s history It s a story of habitations by native peoples and European American settlers their use of natural resources their communities and kin and their efforts to find ways to live in a harsh environment Anyone interested in creating a viable collective future will learn from reading about the Penobscot Bay fisheries and fishermen and about Vinalhaven s citizens expansive knowledge of craft husbandry self governance and community independence and interdependence The Country of the Pointed Firs and Other Stories Sarah Orne Jewett, 1995-10-26 The Country of the Pointed Firs 1896 is Sarah Orne Jewett s most popular book In its elegantly constructed sketches a worldly anonymous writer spends the summer in a tiny Maine fishing village where she hopes to find peace and solitude As she gains the acceptance and trust of her hosts the community s power and complexity are slowly revealed While its episodes portray the difficulty and loneliness of rural life they also display its dignity and strength particularly as expressed in the bonds between women mothers daughters and friends This centennial edition contains a facsimile of the original text thereby restoring the novel to Jewett s own version which had been considerably altered in other published versions plus four related stories Further enhancing the importance of this volume is editor Sarah Way Sherman's introduction which includes a sketch of Jewett's life and professional development a commentary on textual accuracy and a discussion of the book's themes and techniques as well as its historical context

Nineteenth-century Literature, 1997 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature

Poets & Writers, 1997

New Essays on The Country of the Pointed Firs June Howard, 1994-05-27 This is a collection of new essays on one of the most important works of New England local colour fiction The Country of the Pointed Firs by Sarah Orne Jewett It builds on feminist literary scholarship that affirms the importance and value of Jewett's work but goes beyond previously published studies by offering an analysis of how race nationalism and the literary marketplace shape her narrative The volume constitutes a major rethinking of Jewett's contribution to American literature and will be of broad interest to the fields of American literary studies feminist cultural criticism and American studies

The Souls of Black Folk W.E.B. Du Bois, 2000-11-01 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time The problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line Thus speaks W E B Du Bois in The Souls Of Black Folk one of the most prophetic and influential works in American literature In this eloquent collection of essays first published in 1903 Du Bois dares as no one has before to describe the magnitude of American racism and demand an end to it He draws on his own life for illustration from his early experiences teaching in the hills of Tennessee to the death of his infant son and his historic break with the conciliatory position of Booker T Washington Far ahead of its time The Souls Of Black Folk both anticipated and inspired much of the black consciousness and activism of the 1960's and is a classic in the literature of civil rights The elegance of DuBois's prose and the passion of his message are as crucial today as they were upon the book's first publication

Feminist Bookstore News ,1997      One Hundred Years of American Women Writing, 1848-1948 Jane Missner Barstow,1997-03-20 This bibliography is intended for a broad audience Scholars teachers and students alike will find it useful for giving them ideas for further research curriculum studies or dissertation topics Six chapters group authors under headings such as late nineteenth century fiction writers early twentieth century fiction writers poets dramatists and experimental writers intellectuals reformists and journalists and African American women writers Each chapter begins with an introduction that establishes literary and historical context identifies general studies and relevant journals and makes reference to writers not included yet worthy of note For each writer there is a brief biographical entry a listing of reissued editions of her writings and annotations of a broad range of scholarly articles book chapters and full length books on her life and work Appendixes include listings of selected women writers by birthdate and ethnicity      Schools of Fiction Morgan Day Frank,2023-01-09 Throughout history American literature has provided an escape from the classroom yet authors like Twain Melville and Ellison remain key figures in high school and college curricula This book offers an account of this paradox examining the contentious but ultimately generative relationship between literary and scholastic culture in the US

Regionalism and the Female Imagination Emily Toth,1985      Library Journal ,1969-10      The Power Makers Maury Klein,2010-09-01 Maury Klein is one of America s most acclaimed historians of business and society In The Power Makers he offers an epic narrative of his greatest subject yet the power revolution that transformed American life in the course of the nineteenth century The steam engine the incandescent bulb the electric motor inventions such as these replaced backbreaking toil with machine labor and changed every aspect of daily life in the span of a few generations The cast of characters includes inventors like James Watt Elihu Thomson and Nikola Tesla entrepreneurs like George Westinghouse savvy businessmen like J P Morgan Samuel Insull and Charles Coffin of General Electric Striding among them like a colossus is the figure of Thomas Edison who was creative genius and business visionary at once With consummate skill Klein recreates their discoveries their stunning triumphs and frequent failures and their unceasing bare knuckled battles in the marketplace In Klein s hands their personalities and discoveries leap off the page The Power Makers is a dazzling saga of inspired invention dogged persistence and business competition at its most naked and cutthroat a biography of America in its most astonishing decades      The Country of the Pointed Firs and Other Fiction Sarah Orne Jewett,1996 This volume includes Jewett s classic novella and 13 of her short stories written towards the end of her career The introduction a pharmacopoeia and extensive explanatory notes suggest a variety of ways to explore Jewett s subtle fiction      The Gay Nineties in America Robert L. Gale,1992-08-24 From a vantage point 100 years later one can look back on the excitement and ferment of a turbulent decade and find the seeds of the joys and anguish the excesses and successes of the twentieth century Whether for browsing or research readers will reap rewards from this entertaining and enlightening alphabetical compendium of the persons events institutions and ideas of the era Taking the emergence of modern American literature with realism and naturalism replacing romanticism as his point of view Robert L Gale profiles some ninety five writers of classic and popular literature journalism and criticism 140 individual works and thirty magazines all set against the background of America thrusting itself into the twentieth century and evolving as a world power But he doesn't stop there Also represented in over 500 entries are painters and politicians social workers and industrialists composers and inventors explorers and evangelists as well as topics like crime immigration medicine motion pictures sports and universities and landmark events like the Panic of 1893 the Spanish American War and the World's Columbian Exposition Fully cross referenced and indexed the dictionary includes a chronology of events from 1888 to 1901 an appendix classifying entries on key people in occupational and other categories and an extensive bibliography Starting on page one or dipping in at any point in the dictionary the reader will be led to related materials and finally to an understanding of this formative period in American cultural history      Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index
