Courage For Dialogue Ecumenical Issues In Interreligious Relationships:

Courage for Dialogue Stanley J. Samartha, 1981 Dialogue and community Carl F. Hallencreutz, 1977

Interfaith Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2016-09-15 This book addresses issues central to today's Catholic Church focusing on the relationship between various religions in different contexts and regions across the world. The diverse array of contributors present an inclusively interfaith enterprise investigating a wide range of encounters and perspectives. The essays include approaches from the Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Bah traditions in a variety of geographic contexts. Contributors reflect on Muslims in the West, Christian Buddhist social activism and on Chinese Indian and Japanese religions. The volume also explores the experiences of communities that are often marginalized and overlooked such as the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders of Australia and the Karen tribal peoples of Thailand. Contributors examine the works of the Focolare, Glen and Rishikesh movements and integrate the vision of Raimon Panikkar and Ken Wilber. Chapters incorporate discussions of dialogue documents such as Nostra Aetate and Dabru Emet and methodologies such as Receptive Ecumenism, Comparative Theology and Scriptural Reasoning. Among other goals, the book seeks to offer glimpses into interfaith dialogues across the world and examine what Christians can learn from other religions and global contexts.

Ecumenical Considerations for Dialogue and Relations with People of Other Religions World Council of Churches, 2003. Based on thirty years of experience in inter religious relationships and dialogue, the World Council of Churches has produced this expanded and up to date sequel to its 1979 publication Guidelines on Dialogue with People of Living Faiths and Ideologies. This book is also available in French, German and Spanish. Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20. In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding, the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process. The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves. Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields, yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison. This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects. In doing so, this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects. Not Without My Neighbour S. Wesley Ariarajah, 1999. Meeting people of other faiths is an everyday experience not only for minority Christian communities in Asia and the Middle East but increasingly for Christians elsewhere. Yet although interfaith dialogue has established itself as a key concern for the churches and the ecumenical movement, it continues to raise spiritual, social political practical and theological concerns in many quarters The insights in this book draw on the author's wide range of personal experiences as a child student and Methodist pastor in Sri Lanka as a participant in the controversial discussion of interfaith dialogue at the World Council of Churches fifth assembly Nairobi 1975 as a student of Hinduism and especially as a longtime staff member and director of the WCC's dialogue programme Weaving together accounts from daily life ecumenical texts and discussions and theological reflection this book offers a clear and challenging introduction to key issues that arise again and again when Christians and churches enter into conversation with their neighbours of other faiths among them interfaith prayer interfaith marriage religion and conflict and dialogue and mission

Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume's contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century

How to Conquer the Barriers to Intercultural Dialogue Christiane Timmerman, Barbara Segaeert, 2007-09 In a world society ruled by economic globalisation by political interests and theories such as Huntington's clash of civilisations that widen the gap between the North and the South the question should be asked of the role of the religion To what extent religion and politics can work together Can faith still be thought as a means of saving the world Considering that Christianity Islam and Judaism have much in common this collection of miscellanies wonders if these religions can join their forces for public benefit Senior and junior scholars from all over the world gathered for an interdisciplinary seminar analyse the contemporary international relationships and geopolitics through the prism of religion discussing whether it can provide practical solutions to solve conflicts and increase the respect of human rights

Strangers or Co-Pilgrims? S. Wesley Ariarajah, 2017-11-01 This book argues that interfaith dialogue begins with the basic goal of improving Christian relationships with people of other religious traditions But gradually we become aware that this new ministry when taken seriously presents many new challenges We are forced to reexamine our approach to religious plurality to the Bible and to our understanding of Christian missions and our theology of religions

Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22 Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historico sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi religious interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations over more than one century The World s Parliament of Religions 1893 The Religi ser Menschheitsbund 1921 The World Congress of Faiths 1933 1950 The Committee on the Church and the Jewish People of the World Council of Churches 1961 The Temple of Understanding 1968 The International Association for Religious Freedom 1969 The World Conference on Religion and Peace 1970 The Council for a Parliament of the World s Religions 1989 1991 The Oxford International Interfaith Centre 1993 The United Religions Initiative 2000 The Universal Peace Federation 2005 Based on these analyses the authors identify three distinct groups with sometimes conflicting interests that are shaping the movement individual religious virtuosi countercultural activists and representatives of religious institutions Published in cooperation with the King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious Intercultural Dialogue Vienna Religious Diversity and Interreligious Dialogue Anna Körs,Wolfram Weisse,Jean-Paul Willaime,2020-04-07 This edited volume offers solutions on the challenges of religious pluralisation from a European perspective It gives special attention to interreligious dialogue and interfaith relations as specific means of dealing with plurality In particular the contributors describe innovative scientific approaches and broad political and social scopes of action for addressing the diversity of beliefs practices and traditions In total more than 25 essays bring together interdisciplinary and international research perspectives The papers cover a wide thematic range They highlight how religious pluralisation effects such fields as theology politics civil society education and communication media The contributors not only illustrate academic debates about religious diversity but they also look at the political and social scope for dealing with such Coverage spans numerous countries and beliefs from Buddhism to Judaism This book features presentations from the Herrenhausen Conference on Religious Pluralisation A Challenge for Modern Societies held in Hanover Germany October 2016 This insightful collection will benefit students and researchers with an interest in religion and laicism interreligious dialogue governance of religious diversity and religion in the public sphere Interfaith Dialogue Frederic Ntedika Mvumbi,2009 Keeping Faith G. M. Speelman,2001 Belangrijkste vraagstelling in dit proefschrift is welke vormen van communicatie bij mensen van verschillende religieuze en culturele identiteit die met elkaar gehuwd zijn leiden tot wederzijds begrip The Future of Interreligious Dialogue Cohen, Charles L.,Knitter, Paul F.,Rosenhagen, Ulrich,2017-09-14 Accommodation and Acceptance Ambrose Ih-Ren Mong,2015 Unity in Diversity Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Amal Khoury,Emily Welty,2007 The authors discuss the intricate relationships between interfaith activities and religious identity nationalism violence and peacemaking in four very different settings Israel Palestine Lebanon Egypt and Jordan They interview the whole cross section of local Interfaith Dialogue workers not only clerics and dialoguing professionals but also laypersons who are often more eloquent than any scholar at expressing the realities hopes and frustrations of Interfaith Dialogue within their home countries They take on the perennial dilemma faced by Interfaith Dialogue proponents avoid politics and risk irrelevance or take up the political questions and risk politicizing the dialogue with all the disruptive effects this implies Above all this important book demonstrates the desire for interfaith dialogue in these polarized societies and the extent to which against strong odds religious communities are connecting with each other

Back cover Interfaith Dialogue Michael L. Fitzgerald, John Borelli, 2006 Features British architect Jim Stirling as he oversees the construction of one of his buildings Shows projects that he has completed and the style and materials that he used in their construction Also includes Stirling's views on architecture Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women's involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue Encounters Aaron Rosen, 2018 The 21st century is a new era for interfaith dialogue Leaders of many of the world's faiths have begun often for the first time to sit down together and consider the possibilities for cooperation and dialogue between the practitioners of their religions While in the past such encounters might have been stiff affairs contrived to generate a politically expedient photo op what is remarkable today is the depth of relationships being formed across historically deep divides Acclaimed artist Nicola Green has had a front row seat to many of these encounters spending years accompanying former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams in meetings with religious leaders across the world In her wide ranging project Only through Others Green presents photographs and paintings inspired by Dr Williams intimate conversations with figures including Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI the Dalai Lama the Grand Mufti of Egypt and former British Chief Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Green's works resulting from unprecedented access yielding thousands of photographs drawings and pages of notes provide a dynamic lens for the authors in this book to analyze what makes for productive and lasting interfaith dialogue By paying attention to neglected factors in such encounters from the set up of physical spaces to bodily gestures and even the clothing of participants this book provides a truly embodied perspective on interfaith dialogue It refuses to see theology in a vacuum placing faith fully within the context of visual material and sensory culture Controversies in Interreligious Dialogue and the Theology of Religions Paul Hedges, 2013-01-03 A challenging controversial discussion of the current state of the debate about Christianity and other world faiths
