Courageous Leadership:

Courageous Leadership Bill Treasurer, 2011-02-08 Overcome fear and adversity in the workplace with courage Courage is the first virtue of leadership success Leaders require courage to make bold decisions even when there are dissenters to say what needs to be said no matter the consequences and to place their trust in those they manage Yet surprisingly despite the central role that courage plays in leadership success until now there have been few training programs devoted solely to building courage in the workplace The Courageous Leadership workshop introduces a new organizational development practice called courage building As a new professional discipline courage building is predicated on the assumption that people perform better when they are behaving courageously than when they are anxious and afraid To be a courage builder however you have to role model courageous behavior This workshop is designed to help you do just that The objectives of this workshop are to Learn about the three different types of courage and when and how to use each Gain insight into your own courage history so that you can use your past to strengthen your future Understand the impact that fear has on personal and organizational performance Learn about two distinct ways of leading and approaches for inspiring more courageous behavior among the people with whom you work Identify specific actions for extending the value of the workshop so that you can continue benefiting from it going forward Become a courageous leader By learning to apply the strategies and approaches that are introduced in the Courageous Leadership workshop and then applying them in your workplace you will help people step up to challenges more readily embrace change more fully and speak up more assertively When you put your courage to work and when you step past the threshold of your zone of comfort the entire workplace benefits 12 Steps for

Courageous Leadership Michael W. Kublin, 2011-04-28 Its not easy being a leader It takes courage and commitment the willingness to step out of our comfort zone the need to readily adapt to change and the obligation to develop our skill set and the skills within our organization To some this is fearful Dealing with the unknown or facing a known weakness creates discomfort Another way to look at it is that courage and commitment are required to become a stronger leader Embracing both the fear and courage emotions we feel can actually be inspirational After observing many leaders who have come through PeopleTek programs we noticed that the ones who are successful both in life and work have a specific set of characteristics and behaviors Living your life with courage is how it all begins Courage is the single most important attribute any leader must have in order to be effective and successful We call this CourageAbility CourageAbility is the ability to live both your dreams and professional life the way you want while achieving your goals and exceeding in your lifes ambitions and objectives It is taking and empowering yourself and others to go where you or they have never gone before The 12 CourageAbility factors include 1 Passion Having and living your dream 2 Documenting your goals 3 Committing to your goals 4 Understanding your strengths and the strengths of others 5 Communicating with confidence and clarity 6 Understanding and managing conflict with a purpose 7 Developing others 8 Delegating 9 Developing a skill 10 Remaining controlled 11
