Humanistic Geography and Literature (RLE Social & Cultural Geography) Douglas C. D. Pocock,2014-01-23 This book introduces the beginning student to the major concepts materials and tools of the discipline of geography While it presents geographic theory as whole and for each of its parts the chief emphasis is on concrete analysis and example rather than on abstraction an approach which has proven more successful for undergraduate courses than those with a more heavily theoretical bias The text was extensively re written for the third edition which enhanced its clarity and effectiveness with expanded cartographic coverage The Poetry of the Self-taught Julie D. Prandi,2008 The Poetry of the Self Taught demonstrates the characteristic strengths of self taught poetry and analyzes the factors that have caused most selftaught poets to disappear from anthologies and from literary history Raising the question of whether or not their work should be read today and taken seriously instead of being relegated to separate and unequal categories like women s or peasant poetry the book highlights interesting contrasts between the poetry of eighteenth century autodidacts such as Robert Burns Mary Leapor C D F Schubart and Anna Louise Karsch and the work of their contemporaries mainstream poets like Alexander Pope James Thomson C F Gellert and Barthold Heinrich Brockes Self taught poetry is often treated as an index to the lives and times of the poets but this book explores it with a different purpose to understand and illustrate the commonalities in autodidactic poetics imagery rhetorical strategies and themes Concurrent with a recent upturn of interest in laboring or self taught poets both in England and in Germany The Poetry of the Self Taught will be useful for courses focusing on such poets or those dealing with eighteenth century literature The Broadview Anthology of Literature of the Revolutionary Period 1770-1832 D.L. Macdonald,Anne McWhir,2010-03-04 The selections from 132 authors in this anthology represent gender social class and racial and national origin as inclusively as possible providing both greater context for canonical works and a sense of the era s richness and diversity In terms of genre poetry non fiction prose philosophy educational writing and prose fiction are included Geographically America Canada Australia India and Africa are represented along with Britain emphasizing Romantic literature as a world literature Biographical headnotes explanatory footnotes and an extensive bibliography clarify and illuminate the texts for readers The Broadview Anthology of Literature of the Revolutionary Period 1770-1832, 2010 Romanticism and Illustration Ian Haywood, Susan Matthews, Mary L. Sidney: The Critical Heritage Dr Martin Garrett, Martin Garrett, 2002-09-11 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read these sources direct The Literary Economy of Jane Austen and George Crabbe Colin Winborn, 2017-11-28 Though Jane Austen 1775 1817 and the poet George Crabbe 1754 1832 each wrote during the Napoleonic Wars no full length study has considered the importance of these pivotal events to their writing In The Literary Economy of Jane Austen and George Crabbe the author argues that both writers were unusually responsive to the economic anxieties specific to wartime occasioned especially by the Napoleonic trade embargo imposed on Britain from 1806 to 1812 and shared a particular concern with the economizing of space The author's term spatial economy refers to the practice of turning available resources to the best possible account which these authors applied even to the practice of writing as they strove to preserve space on the page Austen in her letters and Crabbe in the couplet Their work displays a preoccupation with boundaries pressure and containment which also informs economic treatises published during this period Through close readings and fresh contextual and historical analysis that draws on the ideas of contemporary thinkers such as Thomas Malthus William Spence William Cobbett Arthur Young and Humphrey Repton Winborn not only establishes a close affinity between Austen and Crabbe but makes a convincing case for rethinking the relationship between the novel and poetry during the Romantic period George Crabbe: Everyman Poetry Stephen Derry, 2012-04-26 A selection of poems by George Crabbe edited by Stephen Derry Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism Critical Survey of Poetry: Campion Frank Northen Magill, 1992 Vol 8 includes guidelines to poetry explication Critical Survey of Poetry: Authors Chau-Dur Frank Northen Magill, 1982 Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K.
