Bonfire Of The Humanities Television Subliteracy And Long Term Memory Loss:

Bonfire of the Humanities David Marc,1995-06 This volume focuses on the relationship between the rise of the multi media environment television and electronic media and the decline of the humanities in academia the changing role of print literacy and the disintegration of historical consciousness David Marc is as mad as hell about some things and he s not going to take it any longer He finds that most university humanities programs remain top heavy with embittered careerists who would rather deny the evidence than admit that with the rise and popular acceptance of mass media their most cherished interests their techniques and skills have become archaic New students are treated as if they read and write as often and for the same purposes as their counterparts before the rise of the television camera telephone and communications satellite Professors get paid Students receive diplomas And yet humanities courses are the joke of the campus In analyzing the decline of the humanities on college campuses Marc covers a wide range of issues including political correctness the growing tolerance of academic cheating and institutionalized grade inflation

Toward the Visualization of History Mark Howard Moss,2008-01-01 This book discusses the impact of visuals on the study of history by examining visual culture and the future of print providing an analysis of photography film television and computer culture The author shows how the visualization of history can become a driving social and cultural force for change

Television's Second Golden Age Robert J. Thompson,1997-10-01 This is an insider s tour touching on the network s dizzying decision making process and the artists who have revolutionized the medium

The Future Without a Past John Paul Russo,2005 Argues that technological imperatives like rationalization universalism monism and autonomy have transformed the humanities and altered the relation between humans and nature Examines technology and its impact on education historical memory and technological and literary values in criticism and theory concluding with an analysis of the fiction of Don DeLillo Provided by publisher

This Thing of Ours David Lavery,2002 As a work of popular culture an innovative television series and a media phenomenon The Sopranos has made an impact throughout the world This text investigates both the wide appeal and controversial reception of this highly debated drama

Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone,2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This inter disciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shamefu

Television at the Movies Jon Nelson Wagner, Tracy Biga MacLean, 2008-05-19 The co authors have a unique approach to the study of television viewing its history and reception not only through important articles about the medium but also through analyzing how Hollywood auteur cinema has commented on television over the decades in films such as Tootsie Network The Last Picture Show A Face in the Crowd Rollerball The King of Comedy and others Television at the Movies argues that the study of television is a crucial aspect of understanding our recent and contemporary culture and it provides an illuminating point of entry for students and researchers in the field

Questions of Method in Cultural Studies Mimi White, James Schwoch, 2008-04-15 Question of Method in Cultural Studies brings together a group of scholars from across the social sciences and humanities to consider one of the most vexing issues confronting the proverbial anti discipline of cultural studies Covers such topics as the media feminism and politics Identifies what methods have prevailed in the interdisciplinary pursuit of cultural studies Examines the relationship between cultural studies and traditional disciplines the politics of knowledge and spatial and temporal models Probes the possibility of method in explicit terms for scholars and students in media communications sociology and allied fields

The Gatekeeper Alfred R. Schneider, 2001-03-01 From 1960 to 1990 Alfred R Schneider served as head of standards and practices or chief censors for the ABC television network From his unique vantage point Schneider managed issues of taste and morality that determined what millions of U S viewers watched During his tenure the nation's attitudes changed drastically as did the content shown on American airwaves Controversies arose about TV's influence on children its portrayal of violence and its introduction of once taboo subjects

Post-Jungian Criticism James S. Baumlin, Tita French Baumlin, George H. Jensen, 2004-02-01 This groundbreaking collection brings the range and diversity of post Jungian thought into the realm of contemporary literary and cultural criticism These essays explore expand critique and apply post Jungian critical theory as they revisit and reread Jung's own writings from numerous perspectives No longer treated as a source of clear unequivocal authoritative pronouncement Jung's writings are themselves subjected to critical deconstructive readings and several of the essays confront head on Jung's evident racism antifeminism anti-Semitism and political conservatism While not downplaying such charges the contributors outline an alternative post Jungian theory responsive to contemporary feminist postcolonial and poststructural concerns The result is not just a critical reinterpretation but more important a regeneration of Jungian thought Revel with a Cause Stephen E. Kercher, 2010-06-15 We live in a time much like the postwar era A time of arch political conservatism and vast social conformity A time in which our nation's leaders question and challenge the patriotism of those who oppose their policies But before there was Jon Stewart Al Franken or Bill Maher there were Mort Sahl Stan Freberg and Lenny Bruce liberal satirists who through their wry and scabrous comedic routines waged war against the political ironies contradictions and hypocrisies of their times Revel with a Cause is their story Stephen Kercher here provides the first comprehensive look at the satiric humor that flourished in the United States during the 1950s and early 1960s Focusing on an impressive range of comedy not just standup comedians of the day but also satirical publications like MAD magazine improvisational theater groups such as Second City the motion picture Dr Strangelove and TV shows like That Was the Week That Was Kercher reminds us that the postwar era saw varieties of comic expression that were more challenging and nonconformist than we commonly remember His history of these comedic luminaries shows that for a sizeable audience of educated middle class Americans who shared such liberal views the period's satire was a crucial mode of cultural dissent For such individuals satire was a vehicle through which concerns over the suppression of civil liberties Cold War foreign policies blind social conformity and our heated racial crisis could be productively addressed A vibrant and probing look at some of the most influential comedy of mid twentieth century America Revel with a Cause belongs on the short list of essential books for anyone interested in the relationship between American politics and popular culture In the Eye of the Beholder Gary Richard Edgerton, Michael T. Marsden, John G. Nachbar, 1997 Scholars from communication studies as well as film and television studies address a variety of texts from Ken Burns's The Civil War to the midnight cult film The Rocky Horror Picture Show Part one focuses on perennial subject areas related to authorship and reception Part two addresses an assortment of postmodern and multicultural screen representations paying closest attention to matters of gender race ethnicity and the disabled Paper edition unseen 24 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Critiquing the Sitcom Joanne Morreale, 2002-12-01 This is the first anthology that examines the TV sitcom in terms of its treatment of gender family class race and ethnic issues The selections range from early shows such as I Remember Mama George Lipsitz's Why Remember Mama The Changing Face of a Woman's Narrative to the more recent Roseanne Kathleen Rowe Karlyn's Roseanne Unruly Woman as a Domestic Goddess The volume also looks unflinchingly at major controversies for example the NAACP boycott of the stereotypical yet wildly popular Amos n Andy and the queer reading of Laverne and Shirley These diverse essays constitute a veritable history of postwar American mores Some are classic some forgotten but all indicate the importance of considering text and subtext social historic industrial in the critical study of television A final chapter by Joanne Morreale bids sitcoms adieu with the cultural spectacle of Seinfeld's last episode TV Creators James L.

Longworth, Jr.,2002-05-01 This sequel provides yet another dozen of today s most acclaimed writers and producers an open uncensored forum in which they discuss everything from their work ethic to the political social and economic issues affecting the television industry The West Wing C S I and Judging Amy are just a few of the dramas that launched a new era of television at the turn of the millennium TV Creators gives scholars and fans alike an exclusive firsthand account of the lives philosophies and contributions of some of the best television scribes of the past two decades TV Creators Volume Two includes revelations such as Aaron Sorkin The West Wing admitting that he is not a natural storyteller and Martha Williamson Touched by an Angel announcing that There is nothing more gender blind than an executive producer who desperately needs a good writer Glenn Gordon Caron Moonlighting Now Joss Whedon Buffy the Vampire Slayer Roy Huggins The Fugitive Clifton Campbell Profiler Barbara Hall Judging Amy Anthony Zuiker CSI Crime Scene Investigation John McNamara The Fugitive and Don Bellisario JAG Magnum P I The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set
