

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a library or study. On the left, a tall wooden ladder stands next to high bookshelves filled with books. In the center, a large wooden table is covered with a patterned cloth and holds several open books, a quill pen, and a small container. To the right, more bookshelves are visible, and a large window with multiple panes allows light into the room. The overall style is that of a classic woodcut or engraving.

The Practice and Representation of Reading in England James Raven, Helen Small, Naomi Tadmor, 2007-09-27
Developments in cultural history and literary criticism have suggested alternative ways of addressing the interpretation of reading How did people read in the past Where and why did they read How were the manner and purpose of reading envisaged and recorded by contemporaries and why Drawing on fields as diverse as medieval pedagogy textual bibliography the history of science and social and literary history this collection of fourteen essays highlights both the singularity of personal reading experiences and the cultural conventions involved in reading and its perception An introductory essay offers an important critical assessment of the various contributions to the development of the subject in recent times This book constitutes a major addition to our understanding of the history of readers and reading Book Catalogues Archer Taylor, 1957

The Sinosphere and Beyond

Joan Judge,Joachim Kurtz,Ori Sela,Dan Shao,Hugh Shapiro,2024-07-22

The history of East Asia can be most productively studied through a transnational translingual and transcultural approach to the region In The Sinosphere and Beyond twenty six leading and emerging scholars use such approaches in rich clusters of essays on Historiography Sino Japanese Encounters Law and Justice Politics Art Literature and Translation Each essay builds on the legacy of Joshua Fogel whose scholarship defined the contours of the Sinosphere in the Western world and beyond The collection will be of interest to scholars and students with specific research concerns within these broader rubrics from the towering progenitors of Japanese Sinology to gendered diplomatic and cultural dimensions of Sino Japanese encounters from Sinitic poetry to legal culture and revolutionary life from art commerce and levels of literary expression to the quandaries of translation In addition to offering a broad range of case studies the volume is testimony to the methodological importance of a dynamic intra and transregional approach for an understanding of the layered history of East Asia

Dane, 2016-12-05 In this book Joseph Dane critiques the use of material evidence in studies of manuscript and printed books by delving into accepted notions about the study of print culture He questions the institutional and ideological presuppositions that govern medieval studies descriptive bibliography and library science Dane begins by asking what is the relation between material evidence and the abstract statements made about the evidence ultimately he asks how evidence is to be defined The goal of this book is to show that evidence from texts and written objects often becomes twisted to support pre existing arguments and that generations of bibliographers have created narratives of authorship printing reading and editing that reflect romantic notions of identity growth and development The first part of the book is dedicated to medieval texts and authorship materials include Everyman Chaucer s Legend of Good Women the Anglo Norman Le Seint Resurrection and Adam de la Helle s Le Jeu de Robin et Marion The second half of the book is concerned with abstract notions about books and scholarly definitions about what a book actually is chapters include studies of basic bibliographical concepts Ideal Copy and the application of such a notion in early editions of Chaucer the combination of manuscript and printing in the books of Colard Mansion and finally examples of the organization of books by an early nineteenth century book collector Leander Van Ess This study is an important contribution to debates about the nature of bibliography and the critical institutions that have shaped its current practice Catalogue of the Marlborough Gems , 1899 Catalogue of the Marlborough Gems Christie, Manson & Woods, 1875
