Courses Toward Urban Life:

The Path to Universal Health Coverage in Bangladesh Sameh El-Saharty, Susan Powers Sparkes, Helene Barroy, Karar Zunaid Ahsan, Syed Masud Ahmed, 2015-06-02 Bangladesh is committed to achieving universal health coverage UHC by 2032 to this end the government of Bangladesh is exploring policy options to increase fiscal space for health and expand coverage while improving service quality and availability Despite Bangladesh's impressive strides in improving its economic and social development outcomes the government still confronts health financing and service delivery challenges In its review of the health system this study highlights the limited fiscal space for implementing UHC in Bangladesh particularly given low public spending for health and high out of pocket expenditure The crisis in the country's human resources for health HRH compounds public health service delivery inefficiencies As the government explores options to finance its UHC plan it must recognize that reform of its service delivery system with particular focus on HRH has to be the centerpiece of any policy initiative

Cities, Classes, and the Social Order Anthony Lee, 2017-04-10 Cities Classes and the Social Order brings together nine conceptual and theoretical essays by the anthropologist Anthony Leeds 1925-1989 whose pioneering work in the anthropology of complex societies was built on formative personal and research experiences in both urban and rural settings in the United States Brazil Venezuela and Portugal Leeds brought to his anthropology a simultaneous concern for science and humanism and for explanation and interpretation He constructed a nuanced and intricate vision of the connections among ecology technology history evolution structure process power culture social organization and human creativity The essays in this book draw on his approach to demarcate the role of cities in human history the use and abuse of class analysis the bases of power in complex societies and an agenda for ethnographic and social historical research in the contemporary world In addition to major but little known writings and an important essay on Marx here published for the first time in English a selection of Leeds's ethnographically and politically inspired poems are included as are several of his professionally exhibited photographs In addition introductory essays by R Timothy Sieber and Roger Sanjek chart the course of Leeds's career and the development of his theoretical viewpoint
