O'Byrne,2004-11-23 The Dimensions of Global Citizenship takes issue with the assumption that ideas about global citizenship are merely Utopian ideals The author argues that far from being a modern phenomenon world citizenship has existed throughout history as a radical alternative to the inadequacies of the nation state system Only in the post war era has this ideal become politically meaningful This social transformation is illustrated by references to the activities of global social movements as well as those of individual citizens Survival: December 2023- January 2024 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS),2023-12-08 Survival the IISS s bimonthly journal challenges conventional wisdom and brings fresh often controversial perspectives on strategic issues of the moment In this issue Lawrence Freedman assesses Russia s nuclear red line and how Vladimir Putin s views compare to those of Russian pundits Steven Simon and Jonathan Stevenson explore the roots of Hamas s attack on Israel on 7 October and the options available to the United States for restraining the Israeli government Charlie Laderman assesses the similarities between December 1941 when Germany and Japan determining it to be inevitable declared war on the US and the ongoing geopolitical crises governments face today Sara Bjerg Moller reflects on NATO allies failure to deliver on national collective defence targets as the Alliance approaches its 75th anniversary Lynn Kuok explores China s reshaping of international law to achieve its strategic goals and other countries failure to do so And seven more thought provoking pieces as well as our regular Book Reviews and Noteworthy column Editor Dr Dana Allin Managing Editor Jonathan Stevenson Associate Editor Carolyn West Editorial Assistant Conor

Hodges Muslim Perspectives on Islamophobia Zouhir Gabsi, 2024-08-06 The Islamic positioning of Islamophobia is presented in this book Through Islamic or Muslim perspectives the book engages with various Islamic texts and discourses spoken and written emanating from preachers and scholars of Islam to discuss the points of convergence and divergence with the Western interpretation of the phenomenon The book aims to look at Islamophobia from a hitherto unexplored angle by first analyzing the points of convergence and divergence between the internal Muslim and external Western perspectives and then by providing new approaches to curbing Islamophobia through a holistic spiritual dimension of Islam and cultural memory The book contends that the bridges of understanding between the East and the West can only be built if some of Islam's theological concepts such as the place of reason in Islam are reinterpreted by considering the Islamic perspectives While the book acknowledges previous work on Islamophobia it contributes to a deeper understanding of Islamophobia in its internal and external manifestations by considering the theoretical frameworks of racism and xenophobia Readers interested in Islamic studies and anti racism narratives would find this book's eclectic approach and balanced perspective of the phenomenon informative and enlightening
