Greenhouse Gas Control Technologies B. Eliasson,P. Riemer,A. Wokaun,1999-05-20 These proceedings contain 270 papers outlining ideas and contributions to the new scientific technical and political discipline of Greenhouse Gas GHG Control The contributions were presented at the 4th International Conference on Greenhouse Gas Control Technologies GHGT 4 It was the largest gathering of experts active in this new and fast developing field GHGT 4 was different from its predecessors in that it included all greenhouse gases not only CO₂ and all issues which could contribute to the mitigation of the greenhouse problem technical economic and political The main focus was on practical solutions and real demonstrations of mitigation technology being planned and implemented today It also addressed ways to increase the efficiency of power production and utilisation and looked at proposals to encourage the development of renewable energy sources During the Opening Session 10 keynote addresses were heard from prominent personalities in government industry and academia To tackle this very inter disciplinary problem and to achieve acceptable solutions it is essential for industry and government to initiate intense dialogue and cooperation Conferences like this can provide the opportunity for a meeting of minds between engineers and politicians in the face of global challenge The primary attributes of this global challenge are manifold the problem is global and international it is inter disciplinary both in substance and approach it covers technical political and economic issues and involves government science industry and academia it is complex and non linear and it will take the efforts of all parties involved to solve the problem These proceedings contain ideas for starting demonstration projects and for making better use of the power and flexibility of market measures They also show it is a problem we can influence and that there is a wealth of ideas The challenge now is to find the right partners to put these ideas into action Wiley CPA Exam Review 2011, Auditing and Attestation Patrick R.
