Becoming a Leader Is Becoming Yourself Russ S. Moxley, 2015-07-04 People yearn for leaders who are authentic, who show their own face and not a game face, who find and use their voice in appropriate ways, and act with a tangible sense of integrity. Those who engage in the process of leadership, each of us at some point, want to do so as our true self. But staying true to one's self is not easy. We are continually moving in and out of authenticity. We are present one moment and absent the next. We often say yes when we want to say no. We act from our core values some of the time but give them a wink when the heat is on. There is no formula for being integral and authentic. Becoming and being ourselves requires confidence and courage. Drawing on the author's 40 years in leadership training, this book discusses the things we can do along the way, recognizing our strengths and limitations, speaking truth to power, trusting our companions as we strive to fulfill our leadership potential. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here.

Joe's Table - A True Story Stephanie Chung, 2018-01-01 Hi, my name is Joe. What is your name? You will see these words on the wall inside a unique café called Joe's Table, named after Joseph Chung. Joseph was diagnosed with autism at a young age and was also afflicted with a seizure disorder. Because Joseph loved to socialize in his own loving and harmless way, Dr. Stephanie Chung and her husband envisioned a job where Joseph could experience the joy and self-esteem that come from having meaningful work. Joe had a talent for engaging people by greeting them. A coffee shop seemed like the perfect place for that gift. In Joe's Table, Stephanie shares her story of a son birthed in joy and later diagnosed with autism, a long battle raising an autistic son, and the journey that made her understand God's providence and compassion, heaven's comfort for mothers who struggle and grieve because their children are different than they expected, a disability that became a blessing to teach God's love. Joseph passed away unexpectedly in September 2012. Stephanie had to face despair and frustration once again as she sent her child to heaven.

before her In that moment she met the heart of God Joe s Table continued to evolve and had its grand opening on June 24 2013 Now it is a one of a kind coffee shop that serves the community and opens employment opportunities for those with different abilities
