Cousin To Terror:

Cold Terror Stewart Bell, 2008-02-28 We believe Al Qaeda continues to have a terrorist infrastructure in Canada one with documented links to the U S While many border security measures have been implemented since 9 11 the vast expanse of the 4 000 mile long U S northern border with eighty six points of entry and various unofficial crossings may still provide opportunities for operatives to penetrate U S national security particularly if Western passports are used The FBI in a classified bulletin Cold Terror will shock the conscience of a nation In terrifying detail it shows how the world s terrorists have made themselves at home in Canada and how they have been made welcome by cowardly politicians David Frum Resident Fellow at the American Enterprise Institute and author of with Richard Perle An End to Evil What s Next in the War on Terror Stewart Bell s clarion call for action needs to be heeded before the ticking Canadian terrorist time bomb blows up closer to home If Canadian terrorists aren t stopped before they use weapons of mass destruction in the United States we ll have far bigger problems than keeping the border open for trade Patrick Grady The Globe and Mail The Faceless

Terrorist Sophie Roche, 2019-05-31 How could a person portrayed as a terrorist by the Tajik state also be seen as a mujahid fighter in Islam and be a cousin all at the same time Is this just a matter of perspective and conceptualization To believe in the protection of concepts to safeguard groups and individuals from the uncertain character of the world is to deny the existence of chance and the contradictions in life This book uses approaches from existential anthropology to enquire into the question of how concepts and experiences relate The focus is on the way the notions jihad mujahid and terrorism were used during a military intervention in Tajikistan in 2010 The book includes long term ethnographic material popular pamphlets on Islam and an internet analysis of the conflict offering new insights into how concepts and experiences relate Since the end of the Soviet Union the people from the republic Tajikistan have struggled to find a place in the larger Muslim world a painful process unfolding in relation to global events discourses and politics The primary readership for the book will come from academia and policy makers The book presents novel material on a fascinating and highly important topic the nature of ostensibly Islamist political violence against the state in Tajikistan John Heathershaw Birds of Terror Noel T.

Skippings, 2015-07-28 The residents of quiet peaceful communities are suddenly and viciously attacked by wanton acts of terrorism which are directed not only at innocent men women and children but also at the fabric of law and order by the bombing of a police station an army barracks and an attempt to bomb the leader of the countrys residence known as the Peoples House The terrorist responsible for the acts of terrorism took many lives and intend to take many more for no apparent reason These terrorists seem to be invisible and vanish after committing the acts leaving no witnesses to their brutal and callous attacks and no clues left behind Are some nonhuman entities involved in executing the carnage on human beings If so how are they able to do so Will the culprits be caught Can these strange birds be responsible If so how have they become birds of terror And who has trained them to commit these acts Law enforcement have put all on the line to solve these crimes will they be successful or will they also fall victim allowing evil to prevail Fresh Perspectives on the 'War on Terror' Miriam Gani, Penelope Mathew, 2008-07-01 On 20 September 2001 in an address to a Joint Session of Congress and the American people President George W Bush declared a war on terror The concept of the war on terror has proven to be both an attractive and a potent rhetorical device It has been adopted and elaborated upon by political leaders around the world particularly in the context of military action in Afghanistan and Iraq But use of the rhetoric has not been confined to the military context The war on terror is a domestic one also and the phrase has been used to account for broad criminal legislation sweeping agency powers and potential human rights abuses throughout much of the world This collection seeks both to draw on and to engage critically with the metaphor of war in the context of terrorism It brings together a group of experts from Australia Canada the United Kingdom France and Germany who write about terrorism from a variety of disciplinary perspectives including international law and international relations public and constitutional law criminal law and criminology legal theory and psychology and law The State of Terror Annamarie Oliverio, 1998-02-13 A comparative analysis of one of the most devastating social problems of the contemporary world Focuses not only on acts of terrorism by terrorists but with their portrayal and manipulation by others particularly the media for social and political purposes

Terrorism in Perspective Sue Mahan, Pamala L. Griset, 2008 Introduction What is terrorism History of terrorism International terrorism Terrorist tactics around the globe Homegrown terrorism in the United States Media coverage of terrorism Women terrorists Technology and terrorism Counterterrorism A Purposeful Life Agitu Wodajo, 2023-02-09 A Purposeful Life outlines Agitu Wodajo's life's journey growing up in the 60s in Ethiopia her experience studying and working in both Ethiopia and the United States traveling the world the adversities she faced in her life's journey and how they shaped her life to empower others to bring change to the quality of their family lives and their communities Agitu was born and raised in Nedjo a small rural town in western Ethiopia During her early life girls education was not common in Ethiopia and the estimated illiteracy rate in the nation was ninety five percent But soon after she was born her father accepted the Protestant Christian faith and purchased a property adjacent to a Swedish Mission School As a result she was able to start school at age six However despite that promising start her father abandoned their family leaving her defenseless against a chain of problems a horrific attack by a school director at the age of ten she had traveled eighty five kilometers by mule back and on foot to attend high school where she continued to face adversities Even after she left school tribulations followed and she endured a very abusive marriage while fighting sexual harassment and persecution in her career But the strong Christian foundation that has shaped her life since childhood and the unyielding faith and optimism that she sustained through it all led her through the depths of adversity to heed the call to make a positive difference in the lives of others Her story provides a bridge between the developing and developed worlds toward addressing our shared responsibility in making the world a better place The NGOs she founded in both Ethiopia and the United States helped underprivileged women through services that build self sufficiency and policy change advocacy that lift barriers Agitu Wodajo has more than thirty years of extensive experience in the areas of women empowerment healthcare community economic development and social policy She obtained diplomas in community nursing and as a pediatric nurse practitioner before she moved to the United States where she earned a bachelor of arts in human services from Metropolitan State University an executive master of public affairs from the Humphrey School of Public Affairs University of Minnesota as a Bush leadership fellow and a PhD in Christian leadership from Christian Leadership University
