Jimmy Reno, a Florida Cracker with an adventurous spirit, grew up in the 1960s on Hog Island in the heart of Central Florida. He lived with his Gramps, his only living relative, who allowed him the freedom to explore the Withlacoochee River and the woodlands that surrounded his home. Gramps taught Jimmy to make a living from the river and to conserve its precious resources. Jimmy's curious nature frequently led him into a heap of trouble: two cut-throat poachers caught him and left him for dead on an island in the middle of the Green Swamp. In engaged in an ongoing battle with Ole Amos, a large catfish that lived in the heart of the Green Swamp. He experienced a close encounter with Ole Cotton-eye, an evil-tempered giant gator, and lived through a twister on Hog Island that injured Gramps. Through all of this, Jimmy learned a powerful lesson on friendship when Bill, his best friend, and all the neighbors came together to give him a helping hand. A key event in Jimmy's life occurred when he met Mattie Sue at the age of nine. They shared adventures that wove a tapestry of friendship and finally love that continued when they went to the University of Florida, where they prepared for lives of service and sacrifice for their beloved Central Florida Home. This story is told through a series of flashbacks triggered by childhood pictures in Gramps' old, tattered photo album. The characters are based on a combination of real people. The story is fiction based on some true events. Fort Lauderdale Hollywood International Airport, 2008 Sailing Directions for the West Indies, 1881 The Everglades Handbook Thomas E.
