Almonds To Zooof Collected Stories:

Almonds to Zooof Richard Stern, 2005-06-10 Stern's stories witty moving charged with narrative energy never sacrifice storytelling to mere elegance or bursts of essayistic wisdom This collection demonstrates Stern's remarkable ability to portray people's flawed relationships to ideas their sometimes bizarre relationships with lovers and friends their often brilliant if skewed appraisals of themselves The stories reflect Stern's compassion for his characters whoever they are and whatever their origins Book jacket

Thinking of Others Ted Cohen, 2012-04-08 In Thinking of Others Ted Cohen argues that the ability to imagine oneself as another person is an indispensable human capacity as essential to moral awareness as it is to literary appreciation and that this talent for identification is the same as the talent for metaphor To be able to see oneself as someone else whether the someone else is a real person or a fictional character is to exercise the ability to deal with metaphor and other figurative language The underlying faculty Cohen argues is the same simply the ability to think of one thing as another when it plainly is not In an engaging style Cohen explores this idea by examining various occasions for identifying with others including reading fiction enjoying sports making moral arguments estimating one's future self and imagining how one appears to others Using many literary examples Cohen argues that we can engage with fictional characters just as intensely as we do with real people and he looks at some of the ways literature itself takes up the question of interpersonal identification and understanding An original meditation on the necessity of imagination to moral and aesthetic life Thinking of Others is an important contribution to philosophy and literary theory
