Almost Home Patricia M. Baranek, Raisa B. Deber, Alan Paul Williams, 2004-01-01 While Medicare continues to resist political and ideological forces aimed at shrinking the state's role cost constraints demographic pressures and technological advancements are increasing pressure on home and community care

Cost Containment and Efficiency in National Health Systems John Rapoport, Philip Jacobs, Egon Jonsson, 2008-12-03 Written by a local health economics expert each of the eight chapters in this timely handbook and ready reference describes the national healthcare system of a different industrialized country In each case the 4-5 specific policies with the highest impact on that respective country over the past 20-30 years are identified In addition the economic characteristics of each policy are described and where possible its success evaluated discussing the current policy agenda A final chapter summarizes and synthesizes the major points of the analysis While the main focus is on economics this guide is written in non-technical language for an audience of health policy decision makers or students of health policy making it an invaluable contribution to the current debate surrounding the control of rising healthcare related costs in the developed world

Primary Health Care: People, Practice, Place Valorie A. Crooks, Gavin J. Andrews, 2016-04-08 Health care is constantly undergoing change and refinement resulting from the adoption of new practices and technologies the changing nature of societies and populations and also shifts in the very places from which care is delivered Primary Health Care: People Practice Place draws together significant contributions from established experts across a variety of disciplines to focus on such changes in primary health care not only because it is the most basic and integral form of health service delivery but also because it is an area to which geographers have made significant contributions and to which other scholars have engaged in thinking geographically about its core concepts and issues Including perspectives from both consumers and producers it moves beyond geographical accounts of the context of health service provision through its explicit focus on the practice of primary health care With arguments well supported by empirical research this book will appeal not only to scholars across a range of social and health sciences but also to professionals involved in health services

Leisure and Aging Heather Julie Gibson, Jerome F. Singleton, 2012 Leisure and Aging Theory and Practice provides students and professionals with a balanced perspective of current knowledge as it presents cutting edge research in both fields Supplemented by online ancillaries this text offers a wealth of knowledge on various aspects of life for older people and the role of leisure in their lives

Perspectives on Care at Home for Older People Christine Ceci, Kristín Björnsdóttir, Mary Ellen Purkis, 2013-03 This volume focuses on how high quality care is provided and the practices and policies that support this It will offer case studies both policy and practice oriented empirical studies from countries that share a basic orientation to social welfare Canada Denmark Finland Iceland Sweden and the United Kingdom This book will be essential reading for students practitioners and researchers who wish to understand diverse problems in service provision for the elderly and the complexities of policy responses in different health and social care contexts

CASE STUDIES IN CANADIAN HEALTH POLICY AND MANAGEMENT, SECOND EDITION Raisa Deber, Catherine Mah, 2014-04-09 Covering a wide range of issues the 22 cases included in Case Studies in Canadian Health Policy and Management constitute an exceptional resource for bringing real life policy questions into the classroom Based on actual events the cases have been developed with input from mid career professionals with strong field experience and extensively tested in Raisa B Deber s graduate case study seminar at the University of Toronto Each case features both a substantive health policy issue and a selection of key concepts and methods appropriate to examining public policy public health and health care management issues In each case the authors provide a summary of the case and the related policy issues a description of events suggested questions for discussion supporting information and both works cited and further reading Suitable for graduate and undergraduate classrooms in programs in a variety of fields Case Studies in Canadian Health Policy and Management is an exceptional educational resource This second edition features all new cases as well as adding an introductory chapter that provides a framework and tools for health policy analysis in Canada Women's Health in Canada Marina Morrow, Olena Hankivsky, Colleen Varcoe, 2008-05-03 In recent years healthcare professionals have recognized the distinctly different healthcare needs and concerns of men and women Women s health in particular has come into its own in the last two decades In Canada however there has been little available in the way of a general text on women s health This volume works toward filling that gap by providing a resource for teaching and understanding women s health in this country To lay out the methodological and theoretical foundations for their study editors Olena Hankivsky Marina Morrow and Colleen Varcoe bring together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners from economics anthropology sociology nursing political studies women s studies and psychology Contributors draw on the rich history of the Canadian women s health movement providing analysis of that history and of the emergent theory policy and practice Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students as well as practitioners the collection adopts an intersectional approach looking closely at social factors such as gender race ethnicity class sexuality and gender identity and analysing how they relate both to each other and to women s health Connections between the social economic and cultural contexts of women s lives and their physical spiritual and mental well being are a primary focus Providing a much needed resource for teachers students and practitioners of women s health in Canada this comprehensive volume makes an important contribution to the literature

Health Matters Eric Mykhalovskiy, Jacqueline A. Choiniere, Pat Armstrong, Hugh Armstrong, 2020-06-05 This book calls into question the complexity of social political cultural and technological aspects of the health care system It explores how critical social science research can be put into action to improve health care in Canada Troubling Care Pat Armstrong, Susan Braedley, 2013 How can we plan organize distribute and offer care in ways that treat both those who need it and those who provide it with dignity and respect Using the example of residential services Troubling Care Critical Perspectives on Research and Practices investigates the fractures in our care systems and challenges how caring work is understood in social policy in academic theory and among health care providers In this era defined by government cutbacks and a narrowing sense of collective responsibility long term residential care for the elderly and disabled is being undervalued and undermined A result of a seven year interdisciplinary research project in progress this book draws together the work of fourteen leading health researchers including sociologists medical practitioners social workers policy researchers cultural theorists and historians Using a feminist political economy lens these scholars explore and challenge the theories work organization practices and state society relations that have come to shape long term care Troubling Care offers critical perspectives on the often disquieting arena of care provision and proposes alternatives for thinking about and meeting the needs of some of our most vulnerable citizens in ways that go beyond residential care This book seeks to bridge not only the gaps between disciplines but also those between theory and practice Features takes an interdisciplinary approach making this work appropriate for courses in a variety of disciplines including sociology medicine social work health policy cultural studies and political economy includes the work of fourteen leading health researchers including sociologists medical practitioners social workers policy researchers cultural theorists and historians bridges the gap between theory and practice by incorporating both theoretical research and specific case examples Valuing Care Work Cecilia Benoit, Helga

Hallgrimsdóttir, 2011-01-01 There are many forms of paid and unpaid labour encompassed in health care systems including home care for the elderly or disabled community health services and the care family members provide for loved ones Valuing Care Work is an international comparative study that examines economic organizations as well as intimate settings to show how personal service work is shaped by broader welfare state developments To trace the relationships between gender labour and equity in health care the essays in this volume analyse the rules and practices that shape care work The contributors highlight how national configurations of the welfare state shape the gendering of paid and unpaid intimate labour in a range of settings and discuss how the policies and practices associated with neoliberalism have focussed on efficiency and accountability to the detriment of other policy agendas including those that might further increase dignity and equity for both recipients and providers of paid and unpaid health care Essays in Honour of Michael Bliss Alison

Li, Elsbeth Heaman, Shelley McKellar, 2008-01-01 A leading public intellectual Michael Bliss has written prolifically for academic and popular audiences and taught at the University of Toronto from 1968 to 2006 Among his publications are a comprehensive history of the discovery of insulin and major biographies of Frederick Banting William Osler and Harvey Cushing The essays in this volume each written by former doctoral students of Bliss with a foreword by John Fraser and Elizabeth McCallum do honour to his influence and at the same time reflect upon the writing of history in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The opening essays discuss Bliss's career his impact on the study of history and his academic record Bliss himself contributes an autobiographical essay that strengthens our understanding of the business of scholarship teaching and writing In the second section the contributors interrogate public mythmaking in the relationship between politics and business in eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth century Canada Further sections investigate the relationship between fatherhood religion and historiography as well as topics in health and public policy A final section on Medical Science and Practice deals with subjects ranging from early endocrinology lobotomy the mechanical heart and medical biography as a genre Going beyond a collection of dedicatory essays this volume explores the wider subject of writing social and medical history in Canada in the late twentieth century Treating Health Care Raisa B. Deber,2018-01-01 Focusing on Canada's health care system Raisa B Deber introduces the reader to the facts and concepts necessary to understand health care policy in Canada and to evaluate how we might want to reform our health care system Canadian Books in Print.

Author and Title Index ,1975 Analyse de Politiques ,2007 Care Home Stories Sally Chivers,Ulla Kriebenberg,2018-03-15 Institutional care for seniors offers a cultural repository for fears and hopes about an aging population Although enormous changes have occurred in how institutional care is structured the legacies of the poorhouse still persist creating panicked views of the nursing home as a dreaded fate The paradoxical nature of a space meant to be both hospital and home offers up critical tensions for examination by age studies scholars The essays in this book challenge stereotypes of institutional care for older adults illustrate the changes that have occurred over time and illuminate the continuities in the stories we tell about nursing homes Health Services Restructuring in Canada Charles M.
