The Prism of the Self S.G. Crowell,2013-03-09 This volume contains 500 essays written by his students and colleagues in honor of Maurice Natanson The essays explore some of the diverse themes Professor Natanson has pursued through forty years of teaching and philosophizing in the tradition of existential phenomenology Because it also includes a lengthy biographical and philosophical interview where one can find an absorbing account of Natanson s Lebens au in his own words there is no need to detail that polypragmatic career here Suffice to say that even passing acquaintance with the man and the work will reveal that Edmund Husserl s self description holds equally of his distinguished interpreter I seek not to instruct but only to lead to point out and describe what I see I claim no other right than that of speaking according to my best lights principally before myself but in the same manner also before others as one who has lived in all its seriousness the fate of a philosophical existence 1 For Natanson as the diversity of the contributions to this volume attest such seriousness involves something other than that narrow technical vision for which a topic is the more philosophical the less it has to do with anything else In Natanson s pages to say nothing of his teaching and conversation there are no men of straw but living breathing human beings with their philosophy s tentacles are ubiquitous The Reflection Within: Unveiling the Power of the Alter Ego Jessica

Lawrence,2023-05-25 The Reflection Within Unveiling the Power of the Alter Ego takes readers on a transformative journey into the depths of the human psyche In this captivating exploration we delve into the concept of the alter ego the hidden persona within us all and discover its profound potential for personal growth and empowerment Drawing upon psychological insights and real life examples this thought provoking book unveils the untapped power that lies dormant within each individual From superheroes to artists entrepreneurs to athletes we witness how embracing and channeling our alter ego can unleash hidden talents overcome limitations and unlock extraordinary levels of self expression With engaging storytelling and practical exercises The Reflection Within inspires readers to embark on their own introspective quest encouraging them to embrace their alter ego and harness its transformative power Step into the extraordinary and embark on a remarkable journey of self discovery where the reflection within becomes the catalyst for unleashing your true potential Taboo ,2003

Philosophy and Science in Phenomenological Perspective Kah Kyung Cho,1984-10-31 The articles included in this volume originate from contributions to the International Conference on Philosophy and Science in Phenomenological Perspective held in Buffalo in March 1982. The occasion had been to honor the late Professor Marvin Farber a long time distinguished member of the Department of Philosophy State University of New York at Buffalo and the Founding Editor of the journal Philosophy and Phenomenological Research. Many of the papers were subsequently rewritten expanded or otherwise edited to be published in the series Phaenomenologica. The articles by Professor Frings and Professor Rotenstreich had not been presented at the conference although they were originally invited papers. We regret that not all papers submitted to the conference including comments could be accommodated in this volume. Nonetheless our sincere gratitude is due to all participants who have made the conference a memorable and worthy event of Philosophy State University of New York at The Department of Buffalo as the sponsor of the conference wishes to acknowledge the grants from the Conferences in the Disciplines Program Conversations in the Disciplines Program and the International Studies of the State University of New York at Buffalo as well as for a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. The International Phenomenological Society with Professor Roderick Chisholm succeeding Marvin Farber as its president co sponsored the conference.

The Alter Ego Effect Todd Herman, 2019-02-05 Now a Wall Street Journal bestseller What if the games we played as children were the greatest gift to helping us achieve more today Before stage fright impostor syndrome emotional baggage and the other dubious gifts of adulthood everyone pretended to be a superhero a favorite athlete an inspiring entertainer a nurse a firefighter a lion or whatever else captured our imaginations And yet that natural creativity is slowly squeezed out of us because we think it's childish or it's time to grow up Now Todd Herman backed by scientific research and countless stories from the real world will show us how to tap into the human imagination to unleash new versions of ourselves ready made to kick ass Herman has been coaching champions in every field for over twenty years and he's helped them bring out their Heroic Self to transcend the forces pulling them into the Ordinary World Anyone attempting ambitious things faces adversity resistance and challenges but Herman confronts these obstacles with a question Who or what needs to show up to make success inevitable In The Alter Ego Effect Herman presents countless stories from salespeople executives entertainers athletes entrepreneurs creatives and historical figures to illustrate how to activate the Heroic Self already nested inside each of us And he reveals that we may not be using those traits in the moments when we need them the most From the creative entrepreneur who resisted their craft to the accomplished military officer who wanted to be a warmer dad at home Todd Herman's clients have discovered there is no end to the parts of their lives they could improve by using Alter Egos

Ego--alter Ego John David Pizer, 1949      AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL LAW CASES Fourth Series 2009 VOLUME 2 Oceana Editorial Board, 2010-12-24 AILC is an annual case law reporter that provides the full text of U.S. court opinions involving international law issues. The courts covered include all U.S. federal district courts federal appellate courts and the U.S. Supreme Court as well as some state courts the U.S. Court of Claims the U.S. Court of International Trade and the U.S. Tax

Court The series seeks to provide not every single case in which a court refers to international law but rather all cases that analyze at least one international law issue in depth The list of subjects addressed by these volumes is vast and changes from year to year with the inclusion and prominence of most topics turning on their prevalence in a given year s jurisprudence Some consistently prominent topics are personal jurisdiction over foreign defendants deportation procedure and double taxation Over the last three editions 2006 2007 and 2008 many topics have developed rapidly and constitute a correspondingly larger portion of the volumes particularly Terrorism the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Forum Non Conveniens and an entirely new added topic the National Security Exception to deportation eligibility The 2008 edition of AILC also features expanded sections on family law and on the detention of terrorist suspects The U S war on terror and the crisis at Guantanamo have made that last topic a significant and dynamic component of AILC Each edition of AILC also comes framed with two practical resources for students and scholars The first is an introductory editor s note that both reviews international law s major developments for the given year and explains to readers how to use the volumes The second is a subject index to allow for targeted research Volume Two of AILC consists of cases concerning territories trusteeships boundaries and navigable waters covering marine torts and crimes and death on the high seas by wrongful act Also covered are procedural aspects including in personam jurisdiction extraterritoriality and forum selection clauses In Atlantic Sounding Co Inc v Edgar L Townsend the issue was whether an injured seaman may recover punitive damages for his employer s willful failure to pay maintenance and cure The court ruled that punitive damages were available as a matter of general maritime law The issue in Jose Marcial Reyes Fuentes et al v Shannon Produce Farm Inc et al was whether the Fair Labor Standards Act s FLSA provision provides a cause of action to foreign workers located abroad who are denied re hire in retaliation for exercising their rights under the FLSA The court ruled that neither the FLSA nor general extraterritoriality principles stand in the way of the plaintiffs retaliation claim
