Alternatives To Globalisation An Asiapacific Perspective:

Alternatives to Globalisation Community Aid Abroad (Australia),1997 Eradication of Poverty and Empowerment of the Poor Amal Raj Chellakan,2007 Globalisation and the Asia-Pacific Iyanatul Islam,Moazzem Hossain,2006-06-27
Presents contested perspectives on globalisation illustrated by the diverse experiences of selected economies of the Asia Pacific as case studies Country experiences ranging from broad political economy perspectives to industry case studies are discussed Australian Islam from Griffith university Rethinking Displacement: Asia Pacific Perspectives Ruchira Ganguly-Scrase,Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt,2016-04-08 This book responds to the need to explore the multitude of interconnected factors causing displacements that compel people to move within their homelands or traverse various borders in the contemporary world that is characterised by extensive and rapid movements of people It addresses this need by bringing together historical and contemporary accounts and critical examinations of the displaced by articulating the commonalities in their lived experiences It accomplishes the task of charting a new path in displacement studies by offering a number of studies from interdisciplinary and diverse methodological approaches comprising ethnographic and qualitative research and literary interpretations to emphasise that although the forms and conditions of mobility are highly divergent individual experiences of displacement and placelessness offer a critical challenge to the artificial categorisations of people s movements Each chapter adds insights into the different configurations of displacement and placement and offers fresh interpretations of migration and dislocation in today s rapidly changing world The contributors critically examine a variety of displacement processes and experiences in the context of war tourism neoliberal policies of development and the impact of various agro forestry policies They focus on a range of countries enabling a thorough comparative analysis in terms of scope and range of examples and methods of analysis This book makes an original contribution to the growing body of literature on displacement and will appeal to a wide readership including advanced undergraduates and graduate students and professors in disciplines such as human geography development studies sociology and anthropology regional studies and comparative impact assessment Capitalist Globalisation, Corporated Tourism and Their Alternatives Freya Higgins-Desbiolles,2009
Any realistic understanding of contemporary tourism in the 21st century must be grounded in a context of the dynamics of capitalist globalisation Sociologist Leslie Sklair s conceptualisation of capitalist globalisation and its dynamics as expressed in his Sociology of the Global System 2002 is employed to understand the corporatised tourism phenomenon and explain the resistance that it sparks This discussion explains how a corporatised tourism sector has been created by transnational tourism and travel corporations professionals in the travel and tourism sector transnational practices such as the liberalisation being imposed through the General Agreement on Trade in Services negotiations and the culture ideology of consumerism that tourists have adopted CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON NEOLIBERAL GLOBALIZATION, DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION IN AFRICA AND ASIA Dip Kapoor,2011-10-30 This interdisciplinary collection of

readings pertaining to schooling higher education adult and community development education indigenous education and social movement learning in the African and Asian regions is a contribution to anti critical colonial scholarship in comparative international education and the sociology of education The political and analytical standpoint that weaves through the text considers the imbrications of the colonial and imperial projects currently referenced as neoliberal globalization globalization of capitalism and development compulsory Eurocentric modernization and their attendant and mutual implications for education social reproduction and hegemony Counter anti hegemonic and indigenous education projects and pre existing alternatives are registered in the critique At last a remarkable collection of essays written by a range of scholars mostly originating from Asia and Africa demonstrating with admirable clarity how policies and practices of neo liberal globalization in those regions cannot be adequately understood without appreciating how they are a product of the exploitative histories of colonialism Written with conceptual sophistication personal knowledge and deep conviction these essays represent a major scholarly intervention in contemporary debates about globalization and education Fazal Rizvi Professor Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne Australia Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA This intriguing and provocative volume deals with crucial intersections between global forces and national initiatives with respect to the most crucial agency of transformation education The cumulative efforts of this assembly of committed intellectuals reveal the forces that retard progress in the two largest continents and offers compelling suggestions on how to redefine the boundaries of power the contents of knowledge and the use of critical thinking to create alternative spaces of autonomy freedom liberation and empowerment Toyin Falola University Distinguished Professor Frances Higginbotham Nalle Centennial Professor University of Texas at Austin This volume well crafted by Dip Kapoor one of the finest scholars in the postcolonial education field brings together writers who examine processes of learning and education more broadly within the context of the dominant discourses of globalisation and development They unveil the underlying neocolonial neoliberal tenets of these processes strongly echoing what Hardt and Negri would call Empire In short another important reading resource provided by Dip Kapoor and colleagues Peter Mayo Professor Chair Educational Studies University of Malta Finally a much awaited intervention on neoliberal globalization from Asian and African perspectives This book makes a compelling case for a historically grounded regionally specific analysis of globalization The contributions are extraordinary for their textured and embedded analysis of neoliberal globalization One of those rare books that deserve to be read across the social sciences Sangeeta Kamat Associate Professor International Education University of Massachusetts Amherst USA

Contemporary International Business in the Asia-Pacific Region Alain Verbeke, Robin E. Roberts, Deborah Delaney, Peter Zámorský, Peter Enderwick, Swati Nagar, 2019-04-02 This text introduces students to core business concepts and comprehensively covers a range of key areas in international business Globalization and the Asia Pacific Economy Kyung Tae Lee, 2003-09-02 This book looks at globalisation in historical perspective and examines the experience of East Asian economies during the financial crisis provides an account of globalisation through the activities of Japanese multinational enterprises deals with the social consequences of exposure to the financial market risks of globalisation in East Asia details the experience of East Asian economies in managing the financial crisis draws lessons from East Asian experience with financial market liberalisation asks what approaches to international financial cooperation trade policy and corporate governance can assist East Asian interests in the world economy Sociological and Philosophical Perspectives on Education in the Asia-Pacific Region Chi-Ming Lam,Jae PARK,2015-12-12 This book demonstrates the value of approaching education from a sociological and philosophical perspective Specifically it addresses current and long standing educational issues in the Asia Pacific region integrating sociological and philosophical insights with practical applications in four key areas educational aims moral education educational policy and the East West dichotomy It discusses educational aims in terms of rationality philosophical thinking and sustainable development and presents the literary religious and analytical approaches to moral education Four educational policies are then considered Hong Kong s language policy Hong Kong s policy on the internationalization of education East Asia s policies on English education and Australia s policy on teacher education Different aspects of the East West dichotomy are analysed Confucian rationalism versus Western rationalism Confucian learning culture versus Western learning culture and Asian research methodology versus Western research methodology Taken as a whole the book shows that issues in education are rarely simple and looking at them from multiple perspectives allows for rich and informed debates It presents a rare philosophical and sociological analysis of the cultures and experiences of education in the Asia Pacific region and promotes research that leads to more culturally rooted educational policies and practice Geopolitics at the End of the Twentieth Century Nurit Kliot,David Newman,2013-11-05 An excellent examination of how the collapse of the Soviet Union and the impact of globalization have brought about changes not only to the territorial configuration sovereignty of states and their boundaries but also to traditional notions of state boundaries sovereignty and social order These essays focus on the key regional and geopolitical characteristics of this global reordering with an emphasis on Eastern Europe and South Asia They discuss the territorial reordering which is taking place at the level of the state as boundaries are redemarcated in line with ethno territorial demands as borders are transversed by the movement of peoples information and finance and as the lines of territorial demarcation are perceived not only in terms of their fixed characteristics but as part of a process through which regional and ethnic identities continue to be formed and reformed Each section ends with articles which focus on literature on geopolitics and boundaries This is an invaluable addition to our understanding of contemporary world affairs Alternative Chinese Opera in the Age of Globalization D. Lei,2011-02-08 Bringing the study of Chinese theatre into the 21st century Lei discusses ways in which traditional art can survive and thrive in the age of modernization and globalization Building on her previous work this new book focuses on various forms of Chinese opera in locations around the Pacific Rim including Hong Kong

Taiwan and California Cases on Tour Guide Practices for Alternative Tourism Yildirim, Gulsun, Ozbek, Ozlem, Kilinc, Ceyhun Caglar, Tarinc, Abdullah, 2020-06-19 Tour guides a highly responsible group of professionals who are in direct communication with tourists traveling around the world have a great impact on the proper promotion of the culture of countries global peace and tolerance Additionally they are also effective in the preservation of world natural heritage Thus the educational status of tour guides as well as the characteristics and ethical values that they should possess need to be examined on an international scale In today s world where tourism demand is directed towards all types of tourism practices in special interest tourism should be customized in order to ensure the highest level of service quality and cultural appreciation Cases on Tour Guide Practices for Alternative Tourism provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of the occupational issues that surround tour guides and their applications within international tourism Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cultural education specialized learning and international business this book is ideally designed for tour guides travel agencies tour managers tour developers heritage sites museums academicians researchers students industry experts and hospitality professionals Globalisation and the Asia-Pacific Peter Dicken, Philip F. Kelly, Lily Kong, Kris Olds, Henry Wai-chung Yeung, 2005-06-27 Most books that analyse the crucial subject of globalisation only look at it from a western perspective This is the first detailed study to look at globalisation specifically in the Asia Pacific region An impressive collection of leading interdisciplinary scholars explore various dimensions of globalisation and their relationship to development processes in the region Sociology of Globalisation Sakarama Somayaji (ed. By), Ganesha Somayaji, 2006 Today we are living in the heightened era of globalisation There are widespread movements of capital humans goods and ideas across the globe resulting in transformations in the quality of socio cultural life of the common men and women of all societies As a concept and an empirical process globalisation has been attracting much social scientific attention in recent years so much so that the word has attained the notoriety of being a buzzword There is a tendency to look at such overarching and divergent processes of globalisation from the narrower perspective of capital flow from the North to the South Though this volume does not aim to be a corrective to such perspective it is surely different from it Most contributions to this volume closely examine the nature of globalisation as a very ancient historical phenomenon and how its structures and processes have changed in the present avatar of globalisation There are convincing arguments on the reverse direction of the global flow which otherwise goes unnoticed by many e g globalisation may originate from below quoted from Prof Yogendra Singh s foreword Through contributions from researchers from divergent disciplinary backgrounds this volume adds hitherto unexplored dimensions to the discourse of globalisation As it contains articles written in lucid and jargon free language the volume makes an understandable reading for teachers students and all those who are interested in knowing the socio cultural reality of present day world Alternative Education Yoshiyuki Nagata, 2007-03-30 Alternative streams of education have been and remain an important but difficult theme for teachers parents policy makers and scholars

By focusing on case studies of six countries Bolivia Thailand Australia USA The Netherlands and Denmark and by comprehensively analysing these by means of international comparative methodologies the author approaches the nuts and bolts issues of alternative and mainstream education systems The case studies include Charter Schools in the USA and Waldorf Schools in Australia The study presents not only an insightful analysis of alternative forms of education with regard to actual issues in societies and also legal and administrative features of education It provides insights into the kind of school development that could be appropriate in the 21st century and the types of educational communities we should seek to create in the age of globalisation
