Galdos: Meow Benito Pérez Galdós,2014 Benito Perez Galdos finely crafted novel Meow is a tragi comedy It is the story of a middle aged middle class middle manager who does not know how to pull the strings that could get him reinstated to his job in the Spain s civil service from which he has been laid off with only two months to go for him to be eligible for his pension and save his family from certain poverty Villaamil is obsessed with the work he used to do and needs still to be doing not only because his family acutely needs his pension but also because he is particularly good at what he does but he is only rebuffed and ridiculed Obsessively compulsively he returns to his former workplace buttonholes men whose careers he had once jumpstarted but whose gratitude he does not seem to have retained is mocked and rejected time and again Ridicule and its necessary obverse egotism is a central theme to a number of sub plots concerning the complex intra familial relationships of various members of the Villaamil family the ridicule itself functioning as a mask for feelings of insecurity and inferiority Three subordinate characters introduce the reader to themeow motif in its first ironic incarnation the women in the Villaamil household whose comical facial resemblance to a cat inspired their nickname But the epithet is later appropriated by Ramon himself when he makes of its letters a series of progressively darker acronyms that express his growing desperation and alienation Galdos indictment of human frailty sometimes judgmental sometimes compassionate is acutely psychologically penetrating and thus his characters are splendidly realized rounded and recognizable in the modern world
