$$\lim_{x \rightarrow a} f(x) = L$$

We can make  $f(x)$  as close to  $L$  by choosing  $x$  as close to " $a$ " but  $x \neq a$

$$\lim_{x \rightarrow a} f(x) = L \quad \begin{array}{c} \text{exist} \\ \Leftrightarrow \\ \text{if and only if} \end{array} \quad \lim_{x \rightarrow a^-} f(x) = L = \lim_{x \rightarrow a^+} f(x)$$

The History of the Concept of Limits Deborah Ann Smith, 1981 History and Its Limits Dominick LaCapra, 2011-02-23 Dominick LaCapra s History and Its Limits articulates the relations among intellectual history cultural history and critical theory examining the recent rise of Practice Theory and probing the limitations of prevalent forms of humanism LaCapra focuses on the problem of understanding extreme cases specifically events and experiences involving violence and victimization He asks how historians treat and are simultaneously implicated in the traumatic processes they attempt to represent In addressing these questions he also investigates violence s impact on various types of writing and establishes a distinctive role for critical theory in the face of an insufficiently discriminating aesthetic of the sublime often unreflectively amalgamated with the uncanny In History and Its Limits LaCapra inquires into the related phenomenon of a turn to the postsecular even the messianic or the miraculous in recent theoretical discussions of extreme events by such prominent figures as Giorgio Agamben Eric L Santner and Slavoj Zizek In a related vein he discusses Martin Heidegger s evocative if not enchanting understanding of The Origin of the Work of Art LaCapra subjects to critical scrutiny the sometimes internally divided way in which violence has been valorized in sacrificial regenerative or redemptive terms by a series of important modern intellectuals on both the far right and the far left including Georges Sorel the early Walter Benjamin Georges Bataille Frantz Fanon and Ernst J nger Violence and victimization are prominent in the relation between the human and the animal LaCapra questions prevalent anthropocentrism evident even in theorists of the posthuman and the long standing quest for a decisive criterion separating or dividing the human from the animal LaCapra regards this attempt to fix the difference as misguided and potentially dangerous because it renders insufficiently problematic the manner in which humans treat other animals and interact with the environment In raising the issue of desirable transformations in modernity History and Its Limits examines the legitimacy of normative limits necessary for life in common and explores the disconcerting role of transgressive initiatives beyond limits including limits blocking the recognition that humans are themselves animals

Holomorphic Vector Fields on Compact Kähler Manifolds Yoz_ Matsushima,1971-12-31 The Idea of Form Rodolphe Gasché,2003 Against the assumption that aesthetic form relates to a harmonious arrangement of parts into a beautiful whole this book argues that reason is the real theme of the Critique of Judgment as of the two earlier Critiques Since aesthetic judgment of the beautiful becomes possible only when the mind is confronted with things of nature for which no determined concepts of understanding are available aesthetic judgment is involved in an epistemological or rather para epistemological task The predicate beautiful indicates that something has minimal form and is cognizable This book explores this concept of form in particular the role of presentation Darstellung in what Kant refers to as mere form which involves not only the understanding but also reason as the faculty of ideas Such a notion of form reveals why the beautiful can be related to the morally good On the basis of this reinterpreted concept of form most major concepts and themes of the Critique of Judgment such as disinterestedness free play the sublime genius and beautiful arts are examined by the author and shown in a new light
