Islamic theology had to wait a long time before being granted a place in the European universities That happened above all in German speaking areas and this led to the development of new theological and religious pedagogical approaches This volume presents one such approach and discusses it from various perspectives It takes up different theological and religious pedagogical themes and reflects on them anew from the perspective of the contemporary context The primary focus is on contemporary challenges and possible answers from the perspective of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy It discusses general themes like the location of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy at secular European universities The volume also explores concrete challenges such as the extent to which Islamic religious pedagogy can be conceptualised anew how it should deal with its own theological tradition in the contemporary context and how a positive attitude towards worldview and religious plurality can be cultivated At issue here are foundations of a new interpretation of Islam that takes into account both a reflective approach to the Islamic tradition and the contemporary context In doing so it gives Muslims the opportunity to take their own thinking further
