Concept Of Other In Latin American Liberation Fusing Emancipatory:

The Concept of Other in Latin American Liberation Eugene Walker Gogol, 2002-01-01 In this exciting new study Eugene Gogol interweaves three strands that form the intellectual bedrock for the concept of the Other in the Latin American context Hegel's dialectic of negativity Marx's humanism and autochthonal emancipatory thought From this foundation the book explores the relation of liberatory philosophic thought to today's social and class movements Gogol considers the logic of capitalism on Latin American soil the ecological crisis in Latin America and the concept and practice of self liberation Still one of the most contested terrains of Latin American thought the Other has been of central concern for many luminary thinkers including Leopoldo Zea Octavio Paz and José Carlos Mariátegui While these writers may not garner much publicity in the world press the highly public and ongoing struggles of the Zapatistas and Brazil's Landless Workers Movement demonstrate the continuing need to theorize the volatile nature of Latin American social reality Raya Dunayevskaya:

Philosopher of Marxist-Humanism Eugene Gogol, 2004-07-28 This study of the origins and development of Marxist Humanism probes the philosophic organizational labors of Raya Dunayevskaya Beginning with her work as secretary to Leon Trotsky in exile in Mexico in 1937-38 the book explores her development of state capitalist theory in the 1940s and her thought dive into Hegel's Absolutes in the 1950s Each of Dunayevskaya's major works Marxism and Freedom 1958 Philosophy and Revolution 1973 and Rosa Luxemburg Women's Liberation and Marx's Philosophy of Revolution 1983 is examined inseparable from the objective world events and revolutionary subjectivity that unfolded from the 1940s into the 1980s The U S Russia super power rivalry the Sino Soviet Conflict the rise of the Afro Asian Latin American and East European revolts and revolutions together with the Black Dimension Women's Liberation anti war youth and rank and file labor struggles in the United States all in fusion with the re creation of the Hegelian and Marxian dialectic in the later half of the twentieth century formed the contours of Dunayevskaya's labors traced within this new work Her final unfinished and unpublished studies on Dialectics of Organization and Philosophy are examined in the concluding part Occupational

Therapies without Borders - Volume 2 Frank Kronenberg, Nick Pollard, Dikaïos Sakellariou, 2011-10-24 The companion text to Occupational Therapy without Borders Volume 1 learning from the spirit of survivors In this landmark text writers from around the world discuss a plurality of occupation based approaches that explicitly acknowledge the full potential of the art and science of occupational therapy The profession is presented as a political possibilities based practice concerned with what matters most to people in real life contexts generating practice based evidence to complement evidence based practice As these writers demonstrate occupational therapies are far more than as some critical views have suggested a monoculture of practice rooted in Western modernity Nobel Peace Laureate Desmond Tutu captures the ethos of this book which essentially calls for engagements in the service of a purpose that is larger than the advancement of our profession's interests Your particular approach to advancing our wellbeing and health strikes me as both unique and easily taken for granted

Whilst you value and work with medical understandings your main aim seems to go beyond these You seem to enable people to appreciate more consciously how what we do to and with ourselves and others on a daily basis impacts on our individual and collective wellbeing As occupational therapists you have a significant contribution to make allowing people from all walks of life to contribute meaningfully to the wellbeing of others Links philosophy with practical examples of engaging people in ordinary occupations of daily life as a means of enabling them to transform their own lives Includes contributions from worldwide leaders in occupational therapy research and practice Describes concrete initiatives in under served and neglected populations Looks at social and political mechanisms that influence people s access to useful and meaningful occupation Chapters increase diversity of contributions geographically culturally and politically Emphasis on practice education and research maintains academic credibility A glossary and practical examples in nearly every chapter make text more accessible to students

Toward a Dialectic of Philosophy and Organization Eugene Gogol, 2012-08-22 In this study revolutions and revolutionary movements of the 19th and 20th centuries are examined through the lens of the Hegelian Marxian dialectic s and Marx s concept of revolutionary organisation

Origins of the Mass Party Edwin Ackerman, 2022 Mexico and Bolivia in comparative perspective and the sociology of party formation Dispossession and the mass party The emergence of the PRI in Mexico The failure of party formation in Bolivia Dispossession and party formation in broader comparative perspective Germany s SPD and the absent British Labour Party

Radical Philosophy, 2004 Utopia and the Dialectic in Latin American Liberation Eugene Gogol, 2015-10-05 Utopia and the Dialectic in Latin American Liberation begins by examining the concept of utopia in Latin American thought particularly its roots within indigenous emancipatory practice and suggests that within this concept of utopia can be found a resonance with the dialectic of negativity that Hegel developed under the impact of the French Revolution further developed by such thinker activists as Marx Lenin and Raya Dunayevskaya From this theoretical philosophical plane the study moves to the liberation practices of social movements in recent Latin American history Movements such as the Zapatistas in Mexico Indigenous feminism throughout the Americas and Indigenous struggles in Bolivia and Colombia are among those taken up most often in the words of the participants The study concludes by discussing a dialectic of philosophy and organization in the context of Latin American liberation

Gramsci in the World Roberto M. Dainotto,Fredric Jameson,2020-07-27 Antonio Gramsci s Prison Notebooks have offered concepts categories and political solutions that have been applied in a variety of social and political contexts from postwar Italy to the insurgencies of the Arab Spring The contributors to Gramsci in the World examine the diverse receptions and uses of Gramscian thought highlighting its possibilities and limits for understanding and changing the world Among other topics they explore Gramsci s importance to Caribbean anticolonial thinkers like Stuart Hall his presence in decolonial indigenous movements in the Andes and his relevance to understanding the Chinese Left The contributors consider why Gramsci has had relatively little impact in the United States while also showing how he was a major force in pushing Marxism beyond Europe especially into the Arab world and other regions of the Global South Rather than taking one interpretive position on Gramsci the contributors demonstrate the ongoing relevance of his ideas to revolutionary theory and praxis Contributors Alberto Burgio Cesare Casarino Maria Elisa Cevalco Kate Crehan Roberto M Dainotto Michael Denning Harry Harootunian Fredric Jameson R A Judy Patrizia Manduchi Andrea Scapolo Peter D Thomas Catherine Walsh Pu Wang Cosimo Zene Pachakutik Marc Becker,2010-12-16 This authoritative book provides a deeply informed overview of one of the most dynamic social movements in Latin America Focusing on contemporary Indigenous movements in Ecuador leading scholar Marc Becker traces the growing influence of the Confederation of Indigenous Nationalities of Ecuador CONAIE which in 1990 led a powerful uprising that dramatically placed a struggle for Indigenous rights at the center of public consciousness. Activists began to refer to this uprising as a pachakutik, a Kichwa word that means change, rebirth, and transformation, both in the sense of a return in time and the coming of a new era. Five years later, proponents launched a new political movement called Pachakutik to compete for elected office. In 2006, Ecuadorians elected Rafael Correa, who many saw as emblematic of the new Latin American left, to the presidency of the country. Even though CONAIE, Pachakutik, and Correa shared similar concerns for social justice, they soon came into conflict with each other. Becker examines the competing strategies and philosophies that emerge when social movements and political parties embrace comparable visions but follow different paths to realize their objectives. In exploring the multiple and conflictive strategies that Indigenous movements have followed over the past twenty years, he definitively documents the recent history and charts the trajectory of one of the Americas' most powerful and best organized social movements.

Contested Liberations, Transitions and the Crisis in Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, 2024-04-02 How and when does culture enter the discourse on liberation, transition, and crisis in an African post-colony such as Zimbabwe? In a deeply polarised nation reeling from a difficult transition and an unrelenting economic crisis, it is increasingly becoming difficult for the ZANU PF regime to prescribe and enforce its monolithic concept of liberation. This book culls from contemporary counter-cultures of liberation and transition the state of liberations in Zimbabwe. It explores how culture has functioned as a complex site where rigid state-authored liberations are legitimated and naturalised, but also where they are negotiated, contested, and subverted.
