Concerning Archigram:

Archigram Archigram (Group), 1999-09 The title Archigram came from the notion of a more simple and urgent item than a Journal like a telegram or aerogramme hence architecture gram Archigram Simon Sadler, 2005-06-24 The first book length critical and historical account of an ultramodern architectural movement of the 1960s that advocated living equipment instead of buildings In the 1960s the architects of Britain's Archigram group and Archigram magazine turned away from conventional architecture to propose cities that move and houses worn like suits of clothes In drawings inspired by pop art and psychedelia architecture floated away tethered by wires gantries tubes and trucks In Archigram Architecture without Architecture Simon Sadler argues that Archigram's sense of fun takes its place beside the other cultural agitants of the 1960s originating attitudes and techniques that became standard for architects rethinking social space and building technology The Archigram style was assembled from the Apollo missions constructivism biology manufacturing electronics and popular culture inspiring an architectural movement High Tech and influencing the postmodern and deconstructivist trends of the late twentieth century Although most Archigram projects were at the limits of possibility and remained unbuilt the six architects at the center of the movement Warren Chalk Peter Cook Dennis Crompton David Greene Ron Herron and Michael Webb became a focal point for the architectural avant garde because they redefined the purpose of architecture Countering the habitual building practice of setting walls and spaces in place Archigram architects wanted to provide the equipment for amplified living and they welcomed any cultural rearrangements that would ensue Archigram Architecture without Architecture the first full length critical and historical account of the Archigram phenomenon traces Archigram from its rediscovery of early modernist verve through its courting of students to its ascent to international notoriety for advocating the disappearance of architecture Concerning Archigram-- Dennis Crompton, 1999-01-01 Concerning Archigram Dennis Crompton, Archigram (Group), 1998 Exercises and Solutions in Statistical Theory Lawrence L. Kupper, Brian. H. Neelon, Sean M. O'Brien, 2013-06-24 Exercises and Solutions in Statistical Theory helps students and scientists obtain an in depth understanding of statistical theory by working on and reviewing solutions to interesting and challenging exercises of practical importance Unlike similar books this text incorporates many exercises that apply to real world settings and provides much more thorough solutions The exercises and selected detailed solutions cover from basic probability theory through to the theory of statistical inference Many of the exercises deal with important real life scenarios in areas such as medicine epidemiology actuarial science social science engineering physics chemistry biology environmental health and sports Several exercises illustrate the utility of study design strategies sampling from finite populations maximum likelihood asymptotic theory latent class analysis conditional inference regression analysis generalized linear models Bayesian analysis and other statistical topics The book also contains references to published books and articles that offer more information about the statistical concepts Designed as a supplement for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses this text is a valuable source of classroom examples homework problems and examination questions It is also useful for scientists interested in enhancing or refreshing their theoretical statistical skills The book improves readers comprehension of the principles of statistical theory and helps them see how the principles can be used in practice By mastering the theoretical statistical strategies necessary to solve the exercises readers will be prepared to successfully study even higher level statistical theory

Structures and Architecture Paulo J. Cruz,2013-06-27 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persuade Reinventing Modern Architecture in Greece Marianna

Charitonidou,2025-05-30 This book examines the connection between the politics of the Marshall Plan and urban planning and identifies the key players such as the Greek architect and urban planner Constantinos A Doxiadis and the Italian industrialist Adriano Olivetti It also explores the architects of the Mataroa mission who played a vital role in the cross fertilisation between France and Greece and the role of travel to Greece for architects during the 19th century This book delves into the work of Constantinos A Doxiadis Adriano Olivetti Alison and Peter Smithson Iannis Xenakis Takis Zenetos Henri Lefebvre Cornelius Castoriadis Aris Konstantinidis Dimitris Pikionis and others It sheds light on how Doxiadis introduced ekistics as a novel approach to understanding the science of human settlements This book proposes that the manner in which these aforementioned architects and urban planners addressed the role of technology in everyday life and the relationship between society history culture nature architecture and urban planning could enrich our ongoing methods and debates on architecture urban planning ecology social equity and democracy This book is based on extensive archival research and will be of interest to architects artists researchers and students and scholars in architecture architectural history and theory art urban sociology cultural theory science and technology studies philosophy ecology cybernetics and aesthetics A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes ,2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world s most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Non-Plan: Essays on Freedom, Participation and Change in Modern Architecture and Urbanism Jonathan Hughes,Simon Sadler,2013-01-11 Non Plan explores ways of involving people in the design of their environments a goal which transgresses political categories of right and left Attempts to circumvent planning bureaucracy and architectural inertia have ranged from free market enterprise zones to self build housing and from squatting to sophisticated technologies of prefabrication Yet all have shared in a desire to let people shape the built environment they want to live and work in How can buildings better reflect the needs of their inhabitants How can cities better facilitate the work and recreation of their many populations Modernism had promised a functionalist approach to resolving the architectural needs of the twentieth century yet the design of cities and buildings often appears to confound the needs of those who use them their design and layout being highly regulated by restrictive legislation planning controls and bureaucracy Non Plan considers the theoretical and conceptual frameworks within which architecture and urbanism have sought to challenge entrenched boundaries of control focusing on the architectural history of the post war period to the present day This provocative book will be of interest to architects planners and students of architecture design town planning and architectural history Its contributors include architects critics and historians including many whose work helped shape the Non Plan debate during the period List of contributors Cedric Price Benjamin Franks Elizabeth Lebas Eleonore Kofman Ben Highmore Yona Friedman Paul Barker Clara Greed Barry Curtis Colin Ward Ian Horton John Beck Chinedu Umenyilora and Malcolm Miles

Geographies of Mobilities: Practices, Spaces, Subjects Dr Peter Merriman, Professor Tim Cresswell, 2012-11-28 Over the past fifteen years or so there has been a widespread and increasing fascination with the theme of mobility across the social sciences and humanities Of course geographers have always had an interest in mobility but as yet they have not viewed this in the same mobility turn as in other disciplines where it has been used to critique the standard approaches to the subjects This text brings together leading academics to provide a revitalised geography of mobilities informed by this wider mobility turn It makes connections between the seemingly disparate sub disciplinary worlds of migration transport and tourism suggesting that each has much to learn from each other through the ontological and epistemological concern for mobility

Mediating Modernism Andrew Higgott, 2007-01-24 Well illustrated Mediating Modernism demonstrates how architectural books and journals have created the architectural culture of the twentieth century and that nowhere is this truer than in Britain

The Practice of Modernism John R. Gold, 2007-06-13 In this sequel to his widely acclaimed book The Experience of Modernism 1997 John Gold continues his detailed enquiry into the Modern Movement's involvement in urban planning and city design Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects of the time this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of postwar urban reconstruction The Practice of Modernism traces the personal institutional and professional backgrounds of the architects involved in schemes for reconstruction and replanning deals directly with the progress of urban transformation focusing on the contribution that modern architects and architectural principles made to town centre renewal and social housing highlights how the exuberance of the 1960s gave way to the profound reappraisal that emerged by the early 1970s Written by an expert this is a key book on the planning aspects of the modernist movement for architectural historians urban geographers planners and all concerned with understanding the recent history of the contemporary city Clip, Stamp, Fold Beatriz Colomina, 2021-04-29 An explosion of little architectural magazines in the 1960s and 1970s instigated a radical transformation in architectural culture as the magazines acted as a site of innovation and debate Clip Stamp Fold takes stock of seventy little magazines from this period The book brings together a remarkable range of documents and original research which the project has produced during its continuous travels over the last four years starting with the exhibition at the Storefront in November 2006 The book features transcripts from the Small Talks events in which editors and designers were invited to discuss their magazines a stocktaking of over 100 significant issues that tracks the changing density and progression of the little magazine phenomenon transcripts of more than forty interviews with magazine editors and designers from all over the world a selection of magazine facsimiles and a fold out poster that offers a mosaic image of more than 1 200 covers examined during the research Mark Fisher Eric Holding, 2000-01-24 This architectural monograph features the work of Mark Fisher who has spent the majority of his life designing stage sets for rich and famous rock groups The work is supported by informative text as well as detailed working drawings Imagining the Present Richard Kalina, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty nine of Lawrence Alloway's most influential essays in one volume this fascinating collection provides valuable perspectives on the art and visual culture of the second half of the twentieth century Lawrence Alloway ranks among the most important critics of his time and his contributions to the spirited and contentious dialogue of his era make for fascinating reading These twenty nine provocative essays from 1956 to 1980 from the man who invented the term pop art bring art film iconography cybernetics and culture together for analysis and investigation and do indeed examine the context content and role of the critic in art and visual culture Featuring a critical commentary by Richard Kalina and preface by series editor Saul Ostrow Imagining the Present will be an enthralling read for all art and visual culture students Joan Littlewood's Theatre Nadine Holdsworth, 2011-04-14 This book investigates Joan Littlewood's theatre productions and her community based projects and activism drawing upon extensive primary archival material Re: CP Cedric Price, 2003-08-25 For forty years British architect Cedric Price has been one of the most challenging and witty provocateurs in the field forcing us to cast a fresh eye on what architecture is Canadian Centre for Architecture Montreal The Inflatable Moment Marc Dessauce, 1999-09 Item presents a complete annotated catalogue of the designs of the Utopie architects and reflects the social events and student protests of 1968 A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 Anne Massey, 2019-03-26 A critical overview of contemporary design and its place within the broader context of art history A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 introduces readers to a collection of specially commissioned essays exploring the complex areas of design that emerged through the latter half of the twentieth century design history design methods design studies and more recently design thinking The book delivers a thoughtful overview of all design disciplines and also strives to stimulate inter disciplinary debate and examine unconsidered convergences among design applications in different fields By offering a new perspective on design the articles assembled here present a challenging account of the boundaries between design history and its cognate disciplines especially art history The volume comprises five sections Time Place Space Objects and Audiences that discuss environments for design and how we interact with designed objects and spaces Notable features include 24 new essays reflecting the current state of design history and theory and examining developments on a global basis Contributions by eminent scholars and practitioners from around the globe Enriched throughout with illustrations A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 provides a new and thought provoking revision of our conception and understanding of contemporary design that will be essential reading for students at both undergraduate and graduate levels as well as researchers and teachers working in design history theory and practice and in related fields
