Did Jesus Live 100 B.C.? G.R.S. Mead, The Inner Scar Andrew Hussey, 2022-05-16 Since his death in 1962 Georges Bataille has acquired the status of one of the most influential thinkers of the age The fact that this reputation has been established by the likes of Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva and Philippe Sollers appears to confirm Bataille as a precursor of the postmodernist condition Few contemporary accounts of Bataille's thought have however engaged with those aspects of his thinking which are influenced by his interest in mysticism This is an omission which is all the more striking given that Bataille considered his thought to be not only opposite to all philosophical traditions originating in the Enlightenment but also a form of speculation intricately related to the religious exigencies of the Christian Medieval period This book presents the first major study in English of how Bataille's mystical practices and texts interact with the outer worlds of politics social relations and externalised discourse which Bataille sets up as the antipodes of his inner experience From this starting point Andrew Hussey argues that the inner experience of limits in Bataille's work the movement which he terms transgression is unlike the textual dramas cherished by his postmodernist admirers a non metaphorical even visceral event
