Concilium Volume 4 Political Commitment Ch:

The Language of Faith Edward Schillebeeckx, 1995 Drawn from the international journal Concilium which he helped to found these essays highlight the diverse contributions of renowned Dutch theologian Edward Schillebeeckx. Spanning a period of twenty five years they reflect his efforts to make Christian faith both intelligible and credible to modern believers while also insisting on solidarity with the victims of violence and injustice. The Language of Faith provides a fascinating chronological overview of the thought and concern of one of the giants of twentieth century Catholic theology. The Ecumenical Council Petrus Huizinga, Knut Walf, 1983 Political Commitment and Christian Community Alois Müller, Norbert Greinacher, 1973 Church and Peace Virgilio P. Most books in English dealing with the subject are now dated and in any case concentrate on institutional questions of church state relations rather than on the wider influence of religion throughout France These essays summarise recent French research and provide a concise up to date introduction to the history of modern French Catholicism

Theology for a Liberating Church Alfred T. Hennelly, 1989 Freedom is a fundamental Christian theological category as much a challenge to construct a new way of seeing oneself and others as it is an announcement of what Christ has already done for us in his death and resurrection Liberation theology is most simply the effort to spell out what such freedom means for Christians in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book has as its principle premise the conviction that if we are to construct a North American liberation theology we must begin listening to and understanding Latin American theology not so much as a model to be slavishly followed but as a challenge to our own cultural political and even religious assumptions The focus thus is not so much on the theoretical meaning of Christian freedom but on its practice and more exactly its praxis that is to say the dialectic between theory and practice After focusing on the creation and development of liberating theological methods and sources and above all the revitalization and renewal of structures that will contribute to the development of a liberated and liberating church Fr Hennelly ends with an analysis of the most recent and the most important vatican document on liberation theology The Instruction of Christian Freedom and Liberation which he sees as an acknowledgement by the universal church that the theme of liberation is central to the meaning of Christian theology

Healing Fractures in Contemporary Theology Peter John McGregor, Tracey Rowland, 2022-01-20 Since Vatican II the key question that has developed in Catholic theology often unstated or unrecognized is what is theology The thesis presented here is that contemporary theologizing is fractured in many places and to varying degrees These fractures can vary in seriousness between theologians and a particular theologian may suffer from some fractures but not others The fractures addressed here are between theology and spirituality theology and philosophy theology and liturgy the literal and spiritual senses of sacred scripture theology preaching and apologetics theology and ethics theology and social theory dogmatic and pastoral theology theology and the koinonial Christian life theologians and non theologians the generation gap between Gen X and Millennial Post Millennial Catholics and theology and the Magisterium For each of these an attempt is made to examine the symptoms give a diagnosis and write a prescription
