Concise dictionary of Ge'ez Wolf Leslau, 2010 Ge'ez is an ancient Ethiopian language which is still important for the liturgy of the Orthodox church. The dictionary is arranged in the order of the Ge'ez syllabary. All the basic as well as the derived forms are presented in the Ge'ez alphabet and in phonetic transcription. The transcription should be helpful in indicating the correct pronunciation of the entries. The dictionary includes nearly all the entries that are considered essential for students of Ge'ez.

Semitic Noun Patterns Joshua Fox, 2018-08-14 This is the first complete study of Semitic internal noun patterns since that of Jacob Barth over a century ago. Drawing on the earlier work of Semitists and linguists, this work presents a comprehensive new synthesis. This diachronic comparative study presents the internal patterns individually and organizes them systematically. This study investigates the special role of noun patterns in isolated nouns and gives a complete list of reconstructible isolated nouns. This diachronic comparative study presents the internal patterns individually and organizes them systematically. The roles of the patterns in the derivation of nouns from roots and in nominal inflection are shown as part of a reconstructed system. This study investigates the special role of noun patterns in isolated nouns and gives a complete list of reconstructible isolated nouns. The heart of the book is devoted to studies of all individual reconstructible internal patterns with their Semitic reflexes including mono- and bisyllabics and patterns with ungeminated or geminated second or third consonants. The book reaches conclusions on the structure of the Proto-Semitic pattern system including categories of reconstructible and non-reconstructible patterns, semantic groups of patterns and relationships between different patterns. Further patterns merge and split diachronically, appearing in different roles in the attested languages where new pattern systems are formed.

The Stele of YHWH in Egypt Csaba Balogh, 2011-09-20 Attempts to reconstruct the compositional history of the book of Isaiah confine themselves mainly to chapters 1-12 and 28-39 supposed to shroud the basic core of any early collection of Isaianic texts Other investigations which verge on the group of prophecies concerning the nations in Isa 13-23 rarely delve into exegetical details to the extent that the reader of Isaiah would feel convinced to stand here on familiar grounds Even others overtly restricted to a small pericope inside Isa 13-23 often neglect the significance of this larger context This book provides a thorough analysis of Isaiah 18-20 concerned with Egypt and Kush from the earliest stages to their final contextualisation within the developing corpus of the Isaianic prophecies regarding the nations
