taken on the same character by its creator and the readers In the final chapters of this section Ibreez Shabkhez and Maksim Duleba uncover mechanisms of expressing conflicting stances with the result of marginalising discourse participants including the stance taker himself Roksolana Povoroznyuk in Part III examines the interpreter's choices in mediating cross cultural literary discourse concentrating on paratranslational techniques and terminological variation both of which involve a lot of translatorial freedom and responsibility Finally Part IV by Christelle Frangieh Fenianos addresses the issue of the second language learner's freedom in choosing the ways of acquiring vocabulary which serves as a gate to the world of cross cultural communication This book will be of interest to researchers postgraduate students and advanced undergraduates working in the fields of philology discourse analysis literature and translation studies and language acquisition Young Scholars' Developments in Linguistics Tatiana V. Dubrovskaya, Yulia Lobina, 2015-10-13 Young researchers natural advocates of change often delve freely into language processes their causes mechanisms and interrelations with social changes However any change is based on tradition and cannot exist without it whether we speak of traditions in terminology approach data or method This volume brings together young scholars from Russia Poland Spain Pakistan Thailand and Ukraine and is based on papers presented at the Second International Young Scholars Conference titled Lexicon Discourse and Speaker Studies held in Ulyanovsk Russia in 2014 It showcases current research into linguistic tradition and change in a variety of contexts across the globe and is divided into four sections each of which embraces one specific sphere of language studies About half of the papers included in the volume are written by Russian authors and in this respect the volume represents a concise collage of linguistic research in the country shedding light on some major trends of research and demonstrating explicitly that Russian linguistics is not developing in isolation from other cultural contexts This book will be of particular interest to researchers postgraduate students and advanced undergraduates working in the fields of discourse analysis linguistics and language acquisition A Grammar of Atong Seino van Breugel, 2014-01-30 Atong is a Tibeto Burman language spoken in Northeast India and Bangladesh Seino van Breugel provides a deep and thorough coverage and analysis of all major areas of the grammar which makes this book of great interest and value to general linguists and typologists as well as area specialists Alongside an Atong English dictionary and five fully glossed Atong texts recorded during extensive fieldwork this work also provides a sizable ethnolinguistic introduction to the speakers and their culture Of particular interest is the pragmatic approach taken for the grammatical analysis Whereas the form of an utterance provides some clue as to its possible meaning inference is always needed to arrive at the most relevant interpretation within the context in which the utterance occurs This is a very important book for South Asian and Sino Tibetan linguistic scholarship Of the 200 languages of Northeast India only a handful have been documented the present work brings the number of full scale modern grammars for these languages to six Thus it represents a unique and extremely valuable contribution Professor Scott DeLancey University of Oregon This is a solid academic work which makes a huge contribution to the field There is no other detailed account of this particular language and it is highly doubtful that anyone will write something more comprehensive in the future Dr Willem de Reuse University of North Texas An Introduction to the Boro Language Phukana Candra Basumatāri,2005-01-01 A Short History of Structural Linguistics Peter Hugoe Matthews,2001-04-23
