A Preach Well Church Josh Taylor, 2023-04-12 Thirty eight percent of pastors have given serious thought to leaving full time ministry in the last year Between the COVID 19 pandemic and the unpredictable never done work of the ministry is it any wonder that many pastors have contemplated resigning Add to this church members unrealistic expectations and a knack for criticism and we see the toll this has taken on pastors and in one area in particular preaching Empty preachers are filling pulpits Is there anything church members can do to help their pastors with burnout and the essential stress of preaching week in week out After extensive research on the subject ninety seven pastors were asked What can your church members do to help you preach well Each chapter in this book is a commitment a clear concrete action developed from the study that church members can take to help their pastors preach well Each chapter also includes a section entitled A Word to Pastors that offers encouragement to those in ministry to help reduce their stress and become better preachers

The Word on the Street Stanley P. Saunders, Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 WHAT HAPPENS WHEN TWO SEMINARY PROFESSORS LEAVE their classrooms and spend time among the homeless people and teach on city streets In this unique collection of essays and sermons Stanley P Saunders and Charles L Campbell reflect on their encounters with the homeless folks in Atlanta and seek to discern the way of Jesus on the streets of the city These passionate often moving writings demonstrate the power of Scripture to shape the way we see the world and they explore the significance of social location for exegesis ethics worship and preaching From the perspective of the street central Christian practices such as baptism Eucharist and preaching come to life in new ways Scripture takes on fresh meaning too while ancient insights into the principalities and powers the practice of scapegoating and the organization of households become contemporary and immediate Even theological themes grace and discipleship sin and forgiveness crucifixion and resurrection look different when taken to the street Accented by six powerful artworks from Christina Bray's exhibit Street Prayers: Spiritual Journeys this book also sheds light on the problem of homelessness in America and calls the church to action Through their reflection on personal experiences and their interpretation of biblical texts Saunders and Campbell provide meaningful theological categories for addressing pressing social issues in the urban context making The Word on the Street a helpful resource on the realities of poverty race and injustice

Concise encyclopedia of preaching Richard ; Willimon Lischer (William H., eds),1995

A Theology of Preaching Richard A. Lischer,2001-06-08 Richard Lischer's book is a stirring affirmation of preaching's importance as a major enterprise in its own right It is he writes a theological preface whose aim is to show how theology informs preaching and how preaching as a kerygmatic oral practical activity informs theology and brings it to its final form of expression Dr Lischer points to the historically negative results of preaching's exclusion from theology and then shows the benefits derived from the proper interaction of the two disciplines As he elaborates on this theme he explores the centrality of the Resurrection in both theology and preaching the relation of the law and the gospel and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral aural foundation For Lischer the act of preaching is an exercise of the preacher's imagination The real work of imagination is not inserting clever stories or esthetically pleasing images into the argument of the sermon It is knowing how to read texts in such a way that they will be allowed to function according to their original power and intent

Sermon Listening Enoh Šeba,2021-06-30 Preaching is an integral part of every church service and its purpose has always been to edify encourage and to emphasize the positive effects of coming together as a people of God Yet there remains an inconsistency between the intended goals of preaching and the subjective perception of the listeners In this homiletical study Dr Enoh eba provides fresh insight into the turn to the listener model and offers a theologically sustainable warrant mandate for the transformation of the preaching practice through a stronger involvement of the congregation While grounding the research in the experience of Croatian Baptists Dr eba highlights practical suggestions for both listeners and preachers that are transferrable across contexts This important work reveals that preaching can and should be transformed into a truly congregational practice that will affirmatively affect the dynamics of ecclesial life This book will spark conversations and induce small scale changes on a variety of levels while bridging the gap between preachers and their listeners
