Dictionary of Dictionaries Thomas Kabdebo,1992 Mathematics in Postmodern American Fiction Stuart J. Taylor,2024-04-23 This book delivers an innovative critical approach to better understand U S fiction of the information age and argues that in the last eighty years fiction has become increasingly concerned with its representations of mathematical ideas images and practices In so doing this book provides a fuller transnational account of the place of mathematics in understanding mathematically informed novels Literature and science studies have acknowledged and situated historical points of cultural crossover by emphasising mathematics within this larger intellectual context and not as an unlikely and alien adjunct to post war culture this monograph clarifies how mathematically informed postmodern fictions work in a cognate fashion to other fields undergoing structuralist revolutions This is especially evident in fiction by the key mathematically literate Postmodern authors upon whom this study focuses namely Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo and David Foster Wallace through which recent the technological revolutions facilitated by mathematics manifest in cultural discourse

Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Nhemachena, Artwell,Hlabangane, Nokuthula,Matowanyika, Joseph Z. Z.,2020-03-02 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies

Everything, Briefly Thomas O. Scarborough, 2022-06-14 As a man thinks so is he Personally and socially so is he Yet if this is true then as a man thinks has led us into the thick of global crisis What exactly is it about our thinking that fails us What has gone so wrong There are firm reasons why we may hope for new direction Firstly we have a new view of the connectedness of all things Never before has this encompassed so much It makes a crucial difference to philosophy Secondly when we recast philosophy s high level concepts in more concrete terms it becomes possible to discuss them without confusion This is the method of this book There is much of interest for the theologian too Legendary film director Ingmar Bergman once wrote What will happen to us who want to believe but can not His can not had to do with what Professor Karen Barad calls the hegemony of physics Everything Briefly details why it is impossible in fact to believe in a closed universe of cause and effect
