Trends in Teenage Talk Anna-Brita Stenström, Gisle Andersen, Ingrid Kristine Hasund, 2002-01-01 Teenage talk is fascinating though so far teenage language has not been given the attention in linguistic research that it merits The dearth of investigations into teenage language is due in part to under representation in language corpora With the Bergen Corpus of London Teenage Language COLT a large corpus of teenage language has become available for research The first part of Trends in Teenage Talk gives a description how the COLT corpus was collected and processed the speakers are presented with special emphasis on the recruits and their various backgrounds ending with a description what the COLT teenagers talk about and how they do it The second part of the book is devoted to the most prominent features of the teenagers talk language how reported speech is manifested a survey of non standard grammatical features the use of intensifiers tags and interactional behaviour in terms of conflict talk

Children, Childhood, and the Future Andrea

Kleeberg-Niepage, 2020-01-10 Although most of the world's children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children's lives
