Condition Of English Literary Studies In A Changing Culture:

The Condition of English Avrom Fleishman, 1998-07-23 Now that the political correctness controversy has cooled a time for sober reflection on the field of English has arrived In this insightful overview of English and of literary studies Fleishman employs both historical perspective and pragmatic sense about choices for the future His approach is to apply recent strategies of contextual understanding to English itself What can a class analysis tell us about the influence on the profession of the changing American socioeconomic system What are the likely intellectual and professional outcomes of the curricular embrace of minority literatures neglected authors and popular culture Beyond stimulating self evaluation by English educators this study prepares readers outside the field to selectively encourage new curricular and methodological opportunities

Learning from Scant Beginnings John V. Knapp, 2008 Using the teaching of John Milton as a case study this book describes how a university English professor teaches an undergraduate course over a semester Employing a situated learning model the author describes the details of literary learning and student development

Teaching British Women Writers, 1750-1900 Jeanne Moskal, Shannon R. Wooden, 2005 The exuberant recovery from obscurity of scores of British women writers has prompted professors and publishers to revisit publication of women's writings New curricular inclusion of these sometimes quirky often passionate writers profoundly disrupts traditional pedagogical assumptions about what constitutes literature This book addresses this radically changed educational landscape offering practical proven teaching strategies for newly recovered writers both in special topics courses and in traditional teaching environments Moreover it addresses the institutional issues confronting feminist scholars who teach women writers in a variety of settings and the kinds of career altering effects the decision to teach this material can have on junior and senior scholars alike Collectively these essays argue that teaching noncanonical women writers invigorates the curriculum as a whole not only by introducing the voices of women writers but by incorporating new genres by asking new questions about readers assumptions and aesthetic values and by altering the power relations between teacher and student for the better

Between Politics and Ethics James N. Comas, 2006 Introduction at the limit of the political Topos politikos A turn of the political screw The theoretical canon Topos thikos The institutional locus of ethics Ethics ethos habitation Conclusion koinonia theoretika or the theoretical community

Visions and Revisions James Dale Williams, 2002 Williams Soka U California has compiled nine essays that examine rhetoric and composition from the 1960s to the present its emergence as a field the influence of linguistics and psychology in shaping an empirical agenda the waning of that influence as the field aligned itself more closely with the goals and objectives of traditional English departments the shift toward postmodern perspectives on language place and self and a move toward post postmodern concerns This historical study begins with reminiscences by Richard Lloyd Jones W Ross Winterowd Frank J D Angelo and John Warnock The second section examines those changes in detail For example Williams makes the connection between rhetoric and democracy especially the influence of liberal democracy on rhetoric in society He argues that because our liberal democracy is so focused on entertainment rhetoric and composition must examine its role in relation to it Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Anthropological Turn in Literary Studies Jürgen Schläeger,1996 Reconstruction in Literary Studies B.

Vescio,2014-08-06 Pointing the way toward a revitalized future for the study of literature Reconstruction in Literary Studies draws on philosophical pragmatism to justify the academic study of literature In turn Vescio connects the changing field to its social function as an institution Babel and the Ivory Tower William David Shaw,Professor W David Shaw,2005-01-01 Writing at the time of his retirement from an academia that after four decades has become unfamiliar Shaw English U of Toronto says in a society where book learning is an anomaly scholars must breach the citadel of computer wizards and technicians by combining their knowledge of books with the rebel s power to criticize authority the prophet s power to renew tradition and the poet s power to create a world that is no less true for being a vision He insists that scientists scholars and professional practitioners must learn from each other Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Making of the English Literary Canon Trevor Ross,1998-05-20 An indigenous canon of letters Ross argues had been both the hope and aim of English authors since the Middle Ages Early authors believed that promoting the idea of a national literature would help publicize their work and favour literary production in the vernacular Ross places these early gestures toward canon making in the context of the highly rhetorical habits of thought that dominated medieval and Renaissance culture habits that were gradually displaced by an emergent rationalist understanding of literary value He shows that beginning in the late seventeenth century canon makers became less concerned with how English literature was produced than with how it was read and received Reforming Literature Education in Malaysia 1957 - 2020 Jia Wei Lim,2024-08-12 Lim traces the complexities in construction and implementation of a school subject namely Literature in English in Malaysia through a focused and grounded narrative where tensions regarding identity reader response and conceptualisations about literature play out in a postcolonial context The book demonstrates the need to think about school subjects as abstract concepts negotiated at various levels be it during curriculum construction or in the classroom These conceptualisations of the subject are further influenced by contemporary concerns and sociopolitical changes over time As such the scope of this book ranges from pre independence Malaysia then Malaya from the 1950s till the current phase of the subject s development in the 21st century The volume illustrates the complex interplay of historical cultural and social influences on the conceptualisation of English literature as a school subject in Malaysia Lim traces examines and interprets its development as an elective subject in the context of post secondary Malaysian education and engages with current trends in education such as internationalization and standardized assessment Lim also highlights the importance of teacher and student lived experiences to argue that personal conceptualisations of the school subject are actualized and negotiated in classroom discourse Offering unique insights into studying Literature in English in a postcolonial context the book will appeal to researchers students and practitioners in the fields of history of education curriculum reform and literature education

A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Literature in the Age of Lingua Franca English Justin Quinn, 2024-12-30 The English language is now a lingua franca spoken by about two billion people This insightful study considers how a bridge language affects world literature by analyzing what it is how it works what are its themes what it means for canons and how it is mediated Cultural criticism often employs perspectives of race citizenship and colonialism as well as considerations of scale archipelagic planetary form analogies between the literary and the social and technologies as they inflect artifacts These approaches help rethink the new dynamics of anglophone literature but they have often overlooked one of the basic elements of literature the language itself Literatures in English vernaculars have flourished and Justin Quinn shows that writers are also creating a new idiom in English that is not fixed to a particular locale or community While sentences may become simpler the vocabulary range narrower and rich cultural references lost Quinn reveals how much this new form of writing gains He explores the work of a wide range of authors including Daisy Hildyard Kim Stanley Robinson Bryan Washington Yiyun Li and Terrance Hayes Literature in the Age of Lingua Franca English The Zero Style is an innovative and illuminating resource for students and scholars of global anglophone literature comparative literature and cultural studies

Subject to Change Susie J. Tharu, 1998 This collections of essays is a reprint of a special issue of the Journal of English and Foreign Languages on Teaching Literature The contributions to this anthology reflect the debate in the thinking about English Literary Studies It discusses the refiguring of internationalism in the context of a new global order
