Condition Of Postmodernity An Enquiry Into The Origins Of Cultural Change:

The Condition of Postmodernity David Harvey,1992-04-08 In this new book David Harvey seeks to determine what is meant by the term in its different contexts and to identify how accurate and useful it is as a description of contemporary experience The Condition of Postmodernity David Harvey,1980 The Condition of Postmodernity David Harvey,1990

The Condition of Postmodernity David Harvey,1990 The Postmodern History Reader Keith Jenkins,1997 The Postmodern History Reader introduces students to the new points of controversy in the study of history and provides a framework by which to understand postmodernism and a guide to explore it further Preaching Christ in a Postmodern Culture K. A. Beville,2010-04-16 Starting with some observations relating to shifts in ecclesiology and identifying them as a move beyond contextualization to syncretism this work goes on to assess the feasibility of preaching in a postmodern culture which rejects both the idea of absolute truth and authority used as power It traces the historical and philosophical development of postmodernism The Enlightenment project is deemed to have failed and Christianity is perceived as an oppressive metanarrative In a world that is becoming increasingly sceptical and where preaching practitioners are becoming disillusioned this book offers some guidelines about preaching to postmoderns In a relational age rationality is impotent but the author distinguishes between authoritative and authoritarian preaching allowing hope for the survival of the homiletic task Humility is presented as preferable to certitude and persuasion is redefined The author suggests using an inductive mode of communication as a means of engaging postmodern listeners He signposts a way forward in the labyrinthine complexity of the new paradigm and demonstrates that the homiletic task is still feasible Thus this book will be of interest to teachers and students of theology as well as pastors desiring to develop a new apologetic strategy Postmodernity in Spanish Fiction and Culture Yaw Agawu-Kakraba,2010-10-15 Postmodernity in Spanish Fiction and Culture is a compelling study that combines elements of cultural studies and literary studies in order to present an integrated cultural representation of the emergence of a postmodern social constitution of contemporary Spain Marking a sweeping reposition from earlier works about postmodernity and postmodernism in Spain Postmodernity in Spanish Fiction and Culture makes a strong connection between postmodernity as social and economic conditions that are the result of unique features of a Spain of the 20th and 21st century and postmodernism as life style experiences that manifest new cultural and artistic practices of the 1980s and beyond The study examines postmodernity by relating it to those exclusive social and cultural experiences that are patently Spanish the movida desencanto immigration globalization and terrorism and concludes that by virtue of Spain s unique socio cultural economic and political history not only does the country emerge as one of the most postmodern of all European nations but also that the conditions that define the country s evolution from the mid 1980s to the present constitute a distinctively authentic postmodernity Culture & History of Postrevolutionary China Arif Dirlik,2011-11-24 The essays in this volume grew from a series of talks delivered in late 2010 as the Liang Qichao Memorial

Lectures at the Academy of National Learning Guoxue yuan of Tsinghua University Beijing Offering critical perspectives on a number of ideological issues that have figured prominently in Chinese intellectual discourse since the beginning of the so-called reform and opening gaige kaifang in the late 1970s these essays range widely in subject matter from Marxist historiography to sociology and anthropology in China to guoxue national studies Together they are conceived as different windows into a basic problem the deployment of culture and history in postrevolutionary Chinese thought Dirlik touches on a number of themes including the repudiation of the revolutionary past after 1978 which has led to a rise of cultural nationalism He further places these developments within a global context ultimately making a case methodologically for worlding China bringing China into the world and the world into China

Illness and Culture in the Postmodern Age David B. Morris, 2023-11-15 We become ill in ways our parents and grandparents did not with diseases unheard of and treatments undreamed of by them Illness has changed in the postmodern era roughly the period since World War II as dramatically as technology transportation and the texture of everyday life Exploring these changes David B Morris tells the fascinating story or stories of what goes into making the postmodern experience of illness different perhaps unique Even as he decries the overuse and misuse of the term postmodern Morris shows how brightly ideas of illness health and postmodernism illuminate one another in late twentieth century culture Modern medicine traditionally separates disease an objectively verified disorder from illness a patient's subjective experience Postmodern medicine Morris says can make no such clean distinction instead it demands a biocultural model situating illness at the crossroads of biology and culture Maladies such as chronic fatigue syndrome and post traumatic stress disorder signal our awareness that there are biocultural ways of being sick The biocultural vision of illness not only blurs old boundaries but also offers a new and infinitely promising arena for investigating both biology and culture In many ways Illness and Culture in the Postmodern Age leads us to understand our experience of the world differently We become ill in ways our parents and grandparents did not with diseases unheard of and treatments undreamed of by them Illness has changed in the postmodern era roughly the period since World War II as dramatically as technology transportation and th

Su,2005-11-24 Images of loss and yearning played a crucial role in literary texts written in the later part of the twentieth century Despite deep cultural differences novelists from Africa the Caribbean Great Britain and the United States share a sense that the economic social and political forces associated with late modernity have evoked widespread nostalgia within the communities in which they write In this original and wide ranging study John J Su explores the relationship between nostalgia and ethics in novels across the English speaking world He challenges the tendency in literary studies to characterise memory as positive and nostalgia as necessarily negative Instead this book argues that nostalgic fantasies are crucial to the ethical visions presented by topical novels From Jean Rhys to Wole Soyinka and from V S Naipaul to Toni Morrison Su identifies nostalgia as a central concern in the twentieth century novel International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens,Hans Bertens,Douwe Fokkema,1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism The Story of Post-Modernism Charles Jencks,2012-05-25 In The Story of Post Modernism Charles Jencks the authority on Post Modern architecture and culture provides the defining account of Post Modern architecture from its earliest roots in the early 60s to the present day By breaking the narrative into seven distinct chapters which are both chronological and overlapping Jencks charts the ebb and flow of the movement the peaks and troughs of different ideas and themes The book is highly visual As well as providing a chronological account of the movement each chapter also has a special feature on the major works of a given period The first up to date narrative of Post Modern Architecture other major books on the subject were written 20 years ago An accessible narrative that will appeal to students who are new to the subject as well as those who can remember its heyday in the 70s and 80s Sells like Teen Spirit

Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery,2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory Color, Culture, Civilization Stanford M. Lyman, 1995 Culture, Power, Place Akhil Gupta, James Ferguson, 1997-07-24 Anthropology has traditionally relied on a spatially localized society or culture as its object of study The essays in Culture Power Place demonstrate how in recent years this anthropological convention and its attendant assumptions about identity and cultural difference have undergone a series of important challenges In light of increasing mass migration and the transnational cultural flows of a late capitalist postcolonial world the contributors to this volume examine shifts in anthropological thought regarding issues of identity place power and resistance This collection of both new and well known essays begins by critically exploring the concepts of locality and community first as they have had an impact on contemporary global understandings of displacement and mobility and second as they have had a part in defining identity and subjectivity itself With sites of discussion ranging from a democratic Spain to a Puerto Rican barrio in North Philadelphia from Burundian Hutu refugees in Tanzania to Asian landscapes in rural California from the silk factories of Hangzhou to the long sought after home of the Palestinians these essays examine the interplay between changing schemes of categorization and the discourses of difference on which these concepts are based The effect of the placeless mass media on our understanding of place and the forces that make certain identities viable in the world and others not are also discussed as are the intertwining of place making identity and resistance as they interact with the meaning and consumption of signs Finally this volume offers a self reflective look at the social and political location of anthropologists in relation to the questions of culture power and place the effect of their participation in what was once seen as their descriptions of these constructions Contesting the classical idea of culture as the shared the agreed upon and the orderly Culture Power Place is an important intervention in the disciplines of anthropology and cultural studies Contributors George E Bisharat John Borneman Rosemary J Coombe Mary M Crain James Ferguson Akhil Gupta Kristin Koptiuch Karen Leonard Richard Maddox Lisa H Malkki John Durham Peters Lisa Rofel
