copy link in description

The Citizens Band Radio craze began back in the 70's. Before then it was mostly used by truck drivers watching over each-other's shoulders for the police. The interest really began with the transistorized unit became available and affordable. Overnight the little known media mushroomed causing millions of everyday people to come out of the woodwork. A lot of that came from anonymity as each operator chose a "handle" instead of using their real names. The use of proper English probably dropped to it's lowest ebb since public schools opened in the US. Seemed everyone wanted to talk to the truckers and for a few years they were lavished with notoriety. The explosion continued until the arrival of Sunspot Cycle 21. Along with it "Ski" arrived in abundance

Confessions Of A Real Cb Nut:

Confessions of a Real 'CB' Nut Bob Holt, 1999-12 On the way back down 64 to Jamesville I d take a shortcut over to Washington going back home I kicked around how to price Ann s Equipment Totally oblivious to what was going on I heard a siren Looking in the rear view mirror it was full of FLASHING BLUE LIGHTS Holy My heart started beating so fast the draft almost took the rest of me with it You ve heard of your whole life passing before your eyes it wasn t my life it was my driving record I d just gotten the last ticket off my record now this The squelch broke on the CB Hey Cousin you got your ears on Who the In a great sense of despair my turn signal on and slowing down I keyed the mike This is the Country Cousin No CB lingo here Just utter despair This is the Cigar Smoker I got your back door 10 4 Walter Parrish Damn his hide He d just cost my 10 years of my life He pulled up along side I d never seen him laugh so hard He shook his finger at me and pulled away Cigar Smoker got your front door now Cousin put the hammer down and bring her on I planned to take the shortcut but looking at my watch I knew it was break time for him I rolled the windows down to get the smell out and followed him to the Town and Country The guys at the Family Table would enjoy this The Life and Times of Wilber Hardee Wilber

Hardee, 2000-12 Bouncing back after losing Hardee s Wilber Hardee would quickly regain his self confidence and open 84 more restaurants over the next 50 years Never looking back his mind is never at rest New ideas are constantly forming and from them the next Project becomes the next reality Wilber tires easily with each new adventure and looks eagerly toward the next one Losing his first wife Helen would come into his life with the stability Wilber desperately needed to bring a solid footing into his life Now in his eighties Wilber a born again Christian can t be still He s constantly working on some project or new idea The twinkle in his eye is still as visable today as it was half a century ago That look that drive made Wilber Hardee one of the formost Fast Food Entrepreneur s of our time Bob Holt Country Recipes and Other Interesting Stuff Bob

Holt, 2000-08-03 When the Lord made pork chops he said that they would be bar none Bob Holt s most favorite meat forever Being brought up in the Presbyterian Church and instilled with a belief in predestination I believe it was fore ordained that pork chops would be it for me From the beginning back in the years of World War II pork was a main staple my first year of life on the family farm You re right I don t remember it but it must have been imprinted on my hard drive After Momma introduced me to pork fat hog lard Justin Wilson brought wine into my life and I ve been on a roll ever since McSweeney's

, 2000 Race, Rights, and Rifles Alexandra Filindra, 2023-09-26 One third of American adults some 86 million people own firearms This is not just for protection or hunting Today it is common to associate US gun centric ideology with individualist and libertarian traditions in American political culture but Race Rights and Rifles shows that gun centric ideology rests on a very old but different foundation a belief system dating back to the American Revolution that fuses republican notions of civic duty with a belief in white male supremacy and a commitment to maintaining racial and gender hierarchies Alexandra Filindra calls this belief system ascriptive martial republicanism because it combines republican ideals of civic virtue with an exclusionary vision of citizenship and an emphasis on martial preparedness over other forms of civic participation and service Drawing on wide ranging historical and contemporary evidence Race Rights and Rifles traces how this ideology emerged during the Revolution and became embedded in America's institutions from state militias to the National Rifle Association NRA Although no longer a dominant ideology ascriptive republicanism remains a potent force in American politics and the NRA is a critical vector of its influence New survey data shows that many White Americans including those outside of the NRA's direct orbit understand citizenship in ascriptive martial republican terms This ideology is a robust predictor of gun ownership support for the NRA and beliefs that guns are a sign of good citizenship Moreover those who embrace this ideology are more likely than others to value gun rights over voting rights to embrace antidemocratic norms and to justify political violence
