Ferdinand Wilhelm Walther,2008 Command and Persuade Peter Baldwin,2023-05-02 Why when we have been largely socialized into good behavior are there more laws that govern our behavior than ever before Levels of violent crime have been in a steady decline for centuries for millennia even Over the past five hundred years homicide rates have decreased a hundred fold We live in a time that is more orderly and peaceful than ever before in human history Why then does fear of crime dominate modern politics Why when we have been largely socialized into good behavior are there more laws that govern our behavior than ever before In Command and Persuade Peter Baldwin examines the evolution of the state s role in crime and punishment over three thousand years Baldwin explains that the involvement of the state in law enforcement and crime prevention is relatively recent In ancient Greece those struck by lightning were assumed to have been punished by Zeus In the Hebrew Bible God was judge jury and prosecutor when Cain killed Abel As the state s power as lawgiver grew more laws governed behavior than ever before the sum total of prohibited behavior has grown continuously At the same time as family community and church exerted their influences we have become better behaved and more law abiding Even as the state stands as the socializer of last resort it also defines through law the terrain on which we are schooled into acceptable behavior
