Confession With Examination Of Conscience:

Making a Better Confession Con O'Connell, 1989-04 Because many Catholics are unhappy with or just don't understand their confessions here is a booklet you can offer to your parishioners to help them with this sometimes difficult practice This wonderful faith filled booklet is designed to help readers gain a deeper understanding of how to make a more meaningful confession It helps them unmask deep attitudes which lie at the root of sin Through soul searching readers can begin the process of self discovery and reconciliation that will lead to more satisfying and meaningful confessions Referenced to the Catechism of the Catholic Church it is useful for Catholics of any age even those who may have left the Church Making a Better Confession will serve as a special reminder that you care about your parishioners well being Those who receive it will surely appreciate it

Calling Sin, SIN Pamela Idenya, 2018-05-21 How would you react to an announcement that asks all eligible Catholics to go to the priests to make a good confession It does happen in some retreat houses when it is time for Confessions In my first experience I wondered about many things like who is eligible What is a good confession and are there bad confessions However in subsequent retreats I noticed that there was an emerging pattern to the way people responded to this call Some seemed OK with it and immediately got up to go join the queues Some seemed eager to go like they needed to be done with it ASAP Others waited for more prompting before heading out of the Prayer Hall Others needed to be literally pulled out of their seats to go and fulfill this obligation Then I got even more curious Are we uncomfortable with going to Confession Why would a catechized Catholic be uncomfortable with making their confession Is the priest in the confessional a matter of contention Is it a trust issue with what or to whom we have to say that what we say Is it that we do not recognize what sin is No matter what it is the Catholic Liturgical program constantly reminds us of the need to confess our sins In every Holy Mass right from the penitential rite to the Kyrie eleison invocation the Gloria and the Creed we are implored to confess our sins and to receive the promise of forgiveness when we repent of our sin Then the LORD's Prayer reminds us to ask to be forgiven our sins as we have forgiven those who sinned against us Before we go to Holy Communion we again acknowledge our unworthiness to receive the Eucharistic LORD but in faith by His word we are cleansed to become worthy to receive Him when we are not in mortal sin cf 1 Corinthians 11:29 of which we are required to make the good confession before an appointed priest for absolution of the sin The question is do we really look within us to ensure we are not receiving the Eucharistic LORD in unworthiness Might it be that some have lost faith and understanding in the real presence of the LORD in the Eucharist Calling sin SIN highlights what the Church teaches to be an affront to Almighty God and gives explanation as to why the Church sees it to be so The author makes an ardent appeal to every practicing Catholic to read this book and make a thorough examination of conscience before approaching a priest to make a good confession This is not a read once only book that gets forgotten on the bookshelf No it is a book that you should want to use every day so as to be reminded of what we ought to identify see its inherent evil nature and call it by name As you read calling sin SIN you will probably learn about things that you may not be aware are sin especially since some of them have so subtly become the norm It is our hope that as you go through each of the sections in the book you will honestly reflect on your own being with regards to a specific item If necessary we encourage you to make a list or some brief notes remember to keep them private to take to your next confession so that you remember those things that you must confess As you examine your conscience please believe in the loving Saviour who forgives our sins and who gives us the grace to become saints Remember the LORD Jesus Christ does this through the ministry of His priests in the Sacrament of Penance cf John 20 21 23 It is our sincere hope that calling sin SIN will encourage you to delve ever so deeply into your conscious subconscious and even unconscious mind to search out those sins that have remained hidden and have become a stronghold for the evil one Then you can confess them to He who is upright and upon whom we depend to forgive sins and to cleanse us from every wrong cf 1 John 1 9 Our deepest desire is that all who read this book will henceforth be able to make a good confession having now been well prepared to call sin what it truly is SIN Confession: Its Fruitful Practice Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, 2009 Blessed are they that wash their robes in the Blood of the Lamb Apoc 22 14 Catholics truly may be called blessed in the means they have of washing the sin stained robes of their souls in the Precious Blood of the Lamb of God in the Sacrament of Penance There is no question but that confession especially frequent confession is an inestimable blessing to mankind Man can hope for no greater blessing on this earth than true peace of soul The Sacrament of Penance is a perennial fountain of peace It is a source of untold consolation to human hearts This sacrament gives any and every member of the Catholic Church who has transgressed the holy laws of God an easy and simple means to obtain full pardon and to be restored to His friendship This is its first and principal effect Its second effect is to wipe out the punishment due to sin eternal punishment entirely and temporal punishment in whole or in part according to the penitent's dispositions It closes the gates of hell which open to swallow up in the infernal abyss souls who deliberately turn away from God by mortal sin and sunder the ties binding them to Him by preferring their own will to His A good confession opens anew the portals of heaven which is barred to souls as long as they remain in the state of grievous sin It clothes souls with the beautiful nuptial garment of sanctifying grace or renders that garment still more beautiful if the soul already possesses it It restores past merits which are lost by even a single mortal sin It renders the soul capable again of performing meritorious acts which is impossible while it is in the state of mortal sin It confers sacramental graces that is powerful supernatural helps to avoid sin in the future and to persevere in the service of God It gives a claim to the special graces the soul needs in order to lead a God pleasing life Finally it checks sinful passions and inclinations to evil To partake in fullest measure of these blessings of the Sacrament of Penance it is necessary for the penitent to know how to make a good confession The present booklet is an attempt to help souls in this all important matter by explaining the five requisites of a good confession and various points which are of vital importance for the fruitful reception of this Sacrament The Sacrament of Reconciliation Robert L. O'Malley, 1993 An arrestingly new picture of the early Jesuits and the world in which they lived from back cover Sin and Confession on the Eve of the Reformation Thomas N. Tentler, 2015-03-08 Although John Calvin often likened sacramental confession to butchery the Council of Trent declared that for those who approached it worthily it was made easy by its great benefits and consolations Thomas Tentler describes and evaluates the effectiveness of sacramental confession as a functioning institution designed to cause guilt as well as cure guilt seeing it in its proper place as a part of the social fabric of the Middle Ages The author examines the institution of confession in practice as well as in theory providing an analysis of a practical literature whose authors wanted to explain as clearly as they safely could what confessors and penitents had to believe do feel say and intend if sacramental confession were to forgive sins In so doing he recreates the mentality and experience that the Reformers attacked and the Counter Reformers defended Central to his thesis is the contention that Luther Calvin and the Fathers of Trent regarded religious institutions as the solution to certain social and psychological problems and that an awareness of this attitude is important for an assessment of the significance of confession in late medieval and Reformation Europe Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Baltimore Catechism: An Explanation of the Baltimore Catechism of Christian Doctrine Thomas L.
