Confessions of the Critics H. Aram Veaser, 2014-05-01 The Confessions of the Critics shatters a certain silence Autobiographical criticism has until now skated relatively free from the challenges that usually assail a new literary critical method It has had this immunity from critique largely because feminists and third world liberation fighters such as Alice Walker Adrienne Rich and Jane Gallop ushered it to the North American academic stage Other women and men including Rigoberta Menchu Nawal al Sadawi Mahasweta Devi and Malcolm X wrote in the tradition and genre of testimonio These and other unimpeachably militant backgrounds gave confessional criticism a certain cache among the largely liberal community of literary scholars We have hesitated to express misgivings about a form that seemed intrinsically tied to the most vital powerful strivings Telling stories about one's own past is probably our culture's richest way of characterizing the effects of social injustice and developing what it takes to resist various kinds of victimage writes contributor Charles Altieri Confessions of the Critics provides a revealing look into the thoughts and experiences of some of the most influential and important critics of the 20th century The writers included avoid pretention and gross self misrepresentation giving way to raw sometimes embarrassing always wholly believable emotion Describing cumulative literary shocks and episodes of self recognition contributors offer insights to their ruling passions and works Powerful sensations emotions recognitions and revelations make up the heart of Confessions of the Critics It is a book that none will put aside or easily forget Contributors Charles Altieri William Andrews Michael F Berube Timothy Brennan Gillian Brown Cathy Davidson Elizabeth Fox Genovese Diane Freedman Marjorie Garber Gerald Graff Stephen J Greenblatt Michael Hill Marianne Hirsch Alice Yeager Kaplan Amitava Kumar Candace Lang Louis Menand Judith Lowder Newton Linda Orr Vincent Pecora David Simpson Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Madelon Sprengnether Jane Tompkins Marianna Torgovnick H Aram Veaser Jeffrey Williams Elizabeth Young Bruehl

Criticism and Confession Nicholas Hardy, 2017 The period between the late Renaissance and the early Enlightenment has long been regarded as the zenith of the republic of letters a pan European community of like minded scholars and intellectuals who fostered critical approaches to the study of the Bible and other ancient texts while renouncing the brutal religio political disputes that were tearing their continent apart at the same time Criticism and Confession offers an unprecedentedly comprehensive challenge to this account Throughout this period all forms of biblical scholarship were intended to contribute to theological debates rather than defusing or transcending them and meaningful collaboration between scholars of different confessions was an exception rather than the norm Neutrality was a fiction that obscured the ways in which scholarship served the interests of ecclesiastical and political institutions Scholarly practices varied from one confessional context to another and the progress of criticism was never straightforward The study demonstrates this by placing scholarly works in dialogue with works of dogmatic theology and comparing examples from multiple confessional and national contexts It offers major revisionist treatments of canonical figures in the history of scholarship such as Joseph Scaliger Isaac Casaubon John Selden Hugo Grotius and Louis Cappel based on unstudied archival as well as printed sources and it places those figures alongside their more marginal overlooked counterparts It also contextualizes scholarly correspondence and other forms of intellectual exchange by considering them alongside the records of political and ecclesiastical bodies Throughout the study combines the methods of the history of scholarship with techniques drawn from other fields including literary political and religious history As well as presenting a new history of seventeenth century biblical criticism it also critiques modern scholarly assumptions about the relationships between erudition humanistic culture political activism and religious identity

Convenient Criticism Dan Chen, 2020-10-01 Why and how does critical reporting persist at the local level in China despite state media control a hallmark of authoritarian rule Synthesizing ethnographic observation interviews survey and content analysis data Convenient Criticism reveals evolving dynamics in local governance and the state media relationship Local critical reporting though limited in scope occurs because local leaders motivated by political career advancement use media criticism strategically to increase bureaucratic control address citizen grievances and improve governance This new approach to governance enables the shaping of public opinion while at the same time disciplining subordinate bureaucrats In this way the party state not only monopolizes propaganda but also expropriates criticism which expands the notion of media control from the suppression of journalism to its manipulation One positive consequence of these practices has been to invigorate television journalists unique brand of advocacy journalism

The Ascetic Imperative in Culture and Criticism Geoffrey Galt Harpham, 2011-01-15 In this bold interdisciplinary work Geoffrey Galt Harpham argues that asceticism has played a major role in shaping Western ideas of the body writing ethics and aesthetics He suggests that we consider the ascetic as the cultural element in culture and presents a close analysis of works by Athanasius Augustine Matthias Gr newald Nietzsche Foucault and other thinkers as proof of the extent of asceticism s resources Harpham demonstrates the usefulness of his findings by deriving from asceticism a discourse of resistance a code of interpretation ultimately more generous and humane than those currently available to us
