The Monastic Way Hannah Ward, 2013-01-25 A book of daily readings drawn from the writings of those who have lived the monastic life in all the major spiritual traditions of the Eastern and Western Churches Benedictine Franciscan Orthodox Carmelite and others For each month there is a specific theme Starting Out Seeking Guidance Living With Others Balancing Life and so on through the year Each theme is introduced by quotations from one of the great monastic Rules and for each day of the year there is an excerpt from the writings of a huge variety of men and women stretching across the centuries from 5th century Desert Mothers to Basil Hume Joan Chittister Thomas Merton and many more familiar and new names This is a book for all who are looking to an ancient rooted wisdom for practical guidance on living in the world today

Living the Hours Anthony Grimley, Jonathan M. Wooding, 2009-10-01 Living the Hours explores what makes the monastic tradition so appealing to ordinary people today who may be discovering a world of spirituality previously hidden from them or perhaps questioning the balance priorities and focal points of their lives Since its beginnings in the fourth century monasticism's alternative vision for living has in different ways always inspired men and women in the secular world to step outside the routine of everyday life and to give time to reflection and exploration The monastic day is measured in hours with times for prayer physical work study and rest all contributing to a balanced holistic life This book looks at different expressions of monastic life through history and at the new monastic movements emerging today and asks how they can teach us in today's consumerist world to live more fully more consciously aware of how we choose to fill our hours and days

Encyclopedia of Catholicism Frank K. Flinn, 2007 Covers the key people movements institutions practices and doctrines of Roman Catholicism from its earliest origins Resumé A Lenten Journey with Jesus Christ and Saint Benedict John R. Fortin, 2009-10 Come to know the spiritual depths of Saint Benedict a man who thought that there was nothing more important in life than to seek God and for whom nothing was to be preferred to the love of Christ Benedict found God in many different ways in the goodness and wonders of creation in his fellow human beings created in the image and likeness of God in the prayerful reading of the Scriptures in the Sacraments and in the prayer of the Church This book can help you to journey with Jesus and Saint Benedict in Lent and thus help you to seek God more fervently and to live according to his commandments in faith hope and love Provided by publisher Journey into Truth Peter Ball, 1999-01-11 Spiritual direction is a relationship in which God is at work using one person to help another on their journey of faith This book shows what this kind of relationship has meant to the Anglican Church over the centuries and what it means for people today Coptic Monasteries: Egypt's Monastic Art And Architecture Gawdat Gabra, Tim Vivian, 2002 Coptic Monasteries takes the reader on a tour of the best preserved and most significant of Egypt's ancient religious centers documenting the richness and the glory of this country's Coptic heritage An informative introduction by Tim Vivian brings to life the early Christian era with background information on the origins of the Coptic Church as well as its rites and ceremonies sketches of some of monasticism's founding figures and accounts of some of the difficulties they faced from religious schism to nomadic attacks Gawdat Gabra's expert commentary complemented by almost one hundred full color photographs of wall paintings and architectural features covers monasteries from Aswan to Wadi al Natrun Ranging across a thousand years of history Gabra's observations will make any reader an expert on the composition and content of some of Egypt's most outstanding religious art and the salient architectural features of each monastery as well as the ongoing process of restoration that has returned much of their original vibrancy to some of these works Jacket Hear Our Silence John Skinner, 2003 What is prayer How may we approach our Maker in a simple direct way In listening to the Silence within For if once we begin to attend to our deeper Self then we begin that most enriching encounter to see Self enclosed within our Maker Julian of Norwich tells us God is nearer to us than our own Soul Educated by the Jesuits from the age of nine John Skinner left school to join the Society of Jesus For thirteen years he followed their formation especially the Ignatian method of prayer But ahead of ordination he changed course to join The Times Five years on Fleet Street left him breathless so that he became a children's bookseller to found The Red House Returning to his former trail twenty years on he managed to spend a bare fortnight living praying and working alongside the Carthusians of Parkminster His narrative of that healing time Hear our Silence tells that tale it also led to an invitation to those outside the cloister to deepen their own experience of prayer I told the Prior I am going to steal your Silence and take it outside His answer use our name What better invitation Gracewing is also the publisher of John Skinner s two companion volumes of silent prayer Sounding the Silence and Echoing the Silence and his translation into modern English of Revelation of Love by Julian of Norwich A Luminous Life Brock Bingaman,2021-03-23 In a culture intrigued by various forms of spirituality this study invites readers to explore the deep historically rooted resources of the Christian spiritual classics It is an invitation to seek the transformative presence of God the kingdom of God within our hearts through the spiritual classics These classics formed in the matrix of meditation on Scripture are like road maps that provide invaluable wisdom and guidance for the spiritual journey Illustrating the importance of theologically grounded spirituality A Luminous Life draws from Catholic Orthodox and Protestant classics that stem from rich trinitarian and christological reflection This book explores key themes in the spiritual classics including biblical images and historical models of spiritual development prayer fasting solitude and community the cross and suffering the desert spiritual direction and contemplation and action This study seeks to bridge the academic and ecclesial demonstrating that the life of the mind and life in the Spirit are unified that theological reflection and spiritual formation go together Considering exemplary writings from diverse traditions such as the Desert Fathers Maximus the Confessor Teresa of Avila and John Calvin A Luminous Life draws readers into worshipful reflection on God and formation in Christ The book concludes with the encouragement to ongoing prayerful study of the spiritual classics as fuel for the luminous life
