Dialogue and Dementia Robert W. Schrauf, Nicole Müller, 2013-11-20 This volume takes the positive view that conversation between persons with dementia and their interlocutors is a privileged site for ongoing cognitive engagement The book aims to identify and describe specific linguistic devices or strategies at the level of turn by turn talk that promote and extend conversation and to explore real world engagements that reflect these strategies Final reflections tie these linguistic strategies and practices to wider issues of the self and agency in persons with dementia Thematically the volume fosters an integrated perspective on communication and cognition in terms of which communicative resources are recognized as cognitive resources and communicative interaction is treated as reflecting cognitive engagement This reflects perspectives in cognitive anthropology and cognitive science that regard human cognitive activity as distributed and culturally rooted This volume is intended for academic researchers and advanced students in applied linguistics linguistic and medical anthropology nursing and social gerontology and practice professionals in speech language pathology and geropsychology

The Poetics and Politics of Alzheimer's Disease Life-Writing Martina Zimmermann, 2017-06-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This is the first book length exploration of the thoughts and experiences expressed by dementia patients in published narratives over the last thirty years It contrasts third person caregiver and first person patient accounts from different languages and a range of media focusing on the poetical and political questions these narratives raise what images do narrators appropriate what narrative plot do they adapt and how do they draw on established strategies of life writing It also analyses how these accounts engage with the culturally dominant Alzheimer s narrative that centres on dependence and vulnerability and addresses how they relate to discourses of gender and aging Linking literary scholarship to the medico scientific understanding of dementia as a neurodegenerative condition this book argues that first patients articulations must be made central to dementia discourse and second committed alleviation of caregiver burden through social support systems and altered healthcare policies requires significantly altered views about aging dementia and Alzheimer s patients
